

Hymn for the Queen's Birthday, 1857.

TUNE : National Anthem.

God, the Eternal King,
Whose praises angels sing
While saints adore ;
His richest blessings shower
On England every hour,
And spread her peaceful power
From shore to shore.

Beneath His gracious care,
May Queen Victoria share
All earthly joys ;—
Preserved from every foe,
Long may She reign below,
Then to bright mansions go

May Albert long abide
Her consort by Her side
In happiness ;
