FIVE KINDS OF PENNIES.

A boy who had a pocketful of coppers droped one into the missionary box, laughing as he did so. He had no thought in his heart about Jesus and th eheathen. Was his penny not as light as tin?

Another boy put in a penny, and looked around to see if anybody was praising him. His was the brass penny; not the gift of a lowly heart, but of a proud spirit.

A third boy gave a penny, saying to himself, "I suppose I must, because all others do."

That was an iron penny. It was the gift of a cold, selfish heart.

As a fourth boy dropped his penny into the box he shed a tear, and his heart said:

"Poor heathens! I am sorry they are so poor, so ignorant, and so miser-

That was a silver penny—the gift of a heart full of pity.

But there was one scholar gave this,

saying:

"For thy sake, Lord Jesus! Oh, that the heathen may hear of thee, the Saviour of mankind." That was a golden penny, because it was the gift of faith and love.

You can train the eye to see all the bright places in your life, and to slip over the hard ones with surprising ease. You can also train the eye to rest on the gloomy spots, in utter forgetfulness of all that is bright and beautiful. The former is the better education. too short to nurse one's misery. Hurry across the lowlands that you may linger on the mountain-tops.—[The Parishioner.
