MOOSWA OF THE BOUNDARIES

By W. A. FRASERA

TN the O tober number of The Canadian Manazine there will commence a series of animal tales by W. A. Fraser, whose short stories have been a feature of recent issues. We have studied the minal life of the Canadian Notices during the rainfallile of the Canadian Notices during the or since some. He has embodied his observations in a charming animal story in which Mooswa, the Moose; Unisk, the Beater; Carcajou, the North the Motel Fox; the Red Widow; the Whiskey is and others play the leading parts. New York and North been produced, surpassing even the famous Jungle anich made Mr. Kipling famous. The Canadian North has been fortunate in obtaining the exclusive Canadian serial rights.

Every boy will want this story read to him; and every father and mother will enjoy reading it to the family circle.

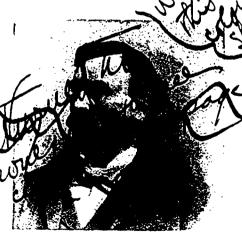

Each of the tales is independent in itself, but all deal with the same community of animals, who talk, joke, laugh and work together in a most interesting manner.

Nobody should miss this healthy tale.

W. A. PRASER.

OTHER FEATURES.

The October number will contain several other valuable contributions. Principal Grant will describe the industrial development of Northern Ontario about Sault Ste. Marie. C. W. Nash, author of several works on Canadian birds, will contribute an article on "Swans, Geese, and Marsh Ducks," the first of two articles on "The Wild Fowl of Ontario." Professor Pelham Edgar will analyze recent criticisms of Canadian poetry. Arthur H. Colquboun will write of "Eight General Elections," and M. E. Nichols of the chances of the two great parties in the approaching general elections. R. L. Richardson, M.P., will continue his articles on Government Ownership of Railways. There will be several short stories as usual

R. L. RICHARDSON, M.P.

THE CANADIAN MAGAZINE,

$2.50 per annum, 10 cents profit on every number.

_TORONTO.