The best dryers for dark colours are made by taking best litharge and grinding it with boiled oil to a stiffish paste. For light colors take one pound of white copperas, one of sugar of lead, pure white lead in powder two pounds; grind with oil as before. A good dryer is made by boiling about one ounce of sulphate of magavese in 1 pound of linseed oil till stiff.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used for children teething. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, oures wind colic, and is the best remedy for diarrhoss. 25c a bottte.

When Lord Erskine was admitted a member of the Fishmonger's Com pany he made an after dinner speech on the occasion. On coming home he said to a friend 'I spoke ill to-day, and stammered and hesitated in the opening, 'You certainly floundered,' was the reply; but I thought you did so in compliment to the fishmongers.'

Being very much reduced by s'ckness and almost given up for a dead man. I commoded taking your Putter's Emulsion. A ter taking it a very short time my health began to improve a d the longer I nod it the better my health became. After being laid aside for nearly a year, I last summer performed the hardest summer's work I ever did, having often to go with one mealed aday. I attribute the saving of my life to Putting's Emulsion.
