THE TRUE WITNESS AND CATHOLIC CHRONICLE

POPE LEO AND THE LEAGUE.

The Message from the Vatican-A Doou mented on Meeting of the League Leaders Parnell's Dispassionate View, May 18.—A profound sensation has been caused in Ireland by the message from the Vatican containing words of disapproval of the prominent action of some Irish prelates and priests in reference to the national movement and in a pointed manner regarding their assistance to the Parnell Testimonial Fund. The Freeman's Journal of this morning announces £300 additional subscriptions to the fund, a great number of the contributors being priests, and this is described as "the first answer to the Vatican." Condemation of the action of the authorities at Rome is general, and there is a bold-ness and significance in the declaration of the pro-Oatholic organ, the Freeman, in saying that the Pope's circular is "the most important document since Adrian's famous bull. The Vatican is grossly misinformed. If it censures the illustrious and beloved Archbishop of Cashel it must also censure nine other distinguished prelates and the entire priesthood of Ireland. All must obey the Pope's command, but the regeneration of Ireland will yet be effected by the union of the priests and the people." The Freeman's illustration of the "bull" of Pope Adrian IV. is most pointed. It may be well to remind American readers that it was that bull-issued by the only Englishman that ever occupied the chair of St. Peter, Nicholas Breakspeare—that gave to England the first possession of Ireland and bestowed upon the adventurers of Henry II., in the Twelfth century, the right to rule and ruin the country.

Mr. Mayne, Parnellite member of Parliament for Tipperary declared that Mr. Par-nell was the head of their political Church, and they should be guided by him in political matters, even though he did not identity himself with the majority in religion.

That the Pope's letter was an affront to the Irish people and to the Irish priesthood, and was one which would be resented at heart, if in no other way. He, as well as other speakers, referred back to the example of O'Connell in the controversy over the memorable Quar-

TALK OF RETALIATION

Opinions of what will be the results of the execution of Brady.

New York, May 16 .- The hanging of Joe Brady created great excitement in Irish circles in this city, and a reporter of the World interviewed several prominent Nationalists to obtain their views on the subject.

Mr. Thomas Brennan, the Honorary Secretary of the Irish National League, said : "The way in which these men have been tried insures sympathy for them whether they are guilty or not guilty. They have not been fairly tried. They have not been tried according to the ordinary law of England. They have been convicted entirely upon the testimony of informers who, according to their own story, were principles in the murder for which Brady was hanged." "What effect do you think the hanging of Joe Brady will have upon the movement for Irish independence?"

"I do not believe it will have any effect on the Irish national cause. It is only one more Irlahman strangled by England. It will do this much, however, it will srouse indignation against England because Brady and his companions have not been given a fair trial I believe it will be the means of widening the gulf that separates the people of Ireland from the Government of Eng. land. Irishmen in this city are much exas-Perated because Brady has not been given a fair trial. His death will certainly not produce friendler relations between the two countries. If there is to be any retaliation, I believe the people who retaliate will act hefore they telk. It would be much better for Ireland if Irishmen in general acted more and tric man, who claims he made many valuable talked less." RETALIATION PROPOSED.

Colonel John Warren said : "Brady should not have been hanged upon the evidence

"What effect will the hanging have in Ireland?" "I don't know but it ought to lead to something." "In what shape?"

LORD LORNE'S DANGER. "There ought to be reprisals. I would recommend that the Irish capture some high functionary and hold him as hostage for the fair trial of the remainder of the prisoners. I would not have them violate the hospitalities of this country, but otherwise I would sugge to that they capture an English Government official wherever most convenient and hold him as a hostage. The Governor General of Canada, for instance, would answer the purpose very well." The gallant Colonel chuckled very much at the idea of holding the Marquis of Lorne as a hostage, but he did not suggest how he should be captured or where he should be hidden after he was captured. Colonel Warren said Brady's offence was not a crime; it was a political offence.

PATRIARCH BRESLIN FOR BETALIATION. Mr. J. J. Breelin, of the Irish Nation, was saked: "Do you think the hanging of Brady will lead to acts of retaliation?"

"If it does not, then the Irish are the beastly Irish, as the Euglish are fond of calling them, and ought to be slaves." "What shape should these acts of retallation take?" "You ask too much. If Joe Brady were my brother I should be inclined to retaliate on the Lord Lieutenant himself, and if possible execute poetical justice by hanging him. Joe Brady has nineteen brothers, and if they have not pluck enough to svenge their brother's death they don't much resemble him ." Mr. Breslin did not think that the hauging of Joe Brady would, as regards the masses of the Irish people here and in Ireland, have any appreciable effect upon the movement for Irish independence. " It only adds one more," he said, "to the score that will have to be wiped out some day."

rate of speed. The guiding is easy and the machine is conducted like an ordinary turnout it went over the hills with comparative ease. When the field was reached five of the eight ploughs werelowered and an experiment commenced. There were about one hundred farmers present, and all took great interest in the operation. The majority of them were pronounced in opinion as to the very satisfactory results. The ploughs turned up five furrows of two three, and four inches in depth and twelve inches in width. The field was a grass one. The ploughs were taken up and down the field, and the lost was satisfactory in all sections. The whole eight ploughs were next placed in motion, and sufficient results were obtained to show conclusively that the implement is a success.

WHAT IT CAN DO.

WHAT IT CAN DO.

It is claimed that when in proper working order 25 acres of sod can be ploughed during ten hours' work. Its average rate of speed is piaced at three miles per hour. Like in all cases of trial there were, as might be expected, certain little hitche; which, however, can easily be remedied. This fact was especially noticeable in the working of three of the ploughs to which certain improvements had not been attached as in the case of the other five. The most important matter which had to be ascertained, however, was whether the motive power was equal to the requirements. This has now been shown beyond a doubt. The inventors who have so far been successful in organizing this implement will probably solve means to perfect it. This is the third engine and steam plough turned out. The two former have gone to the North-West and are bring used there. WHAT IT CAN DO.

THE COST. THE COST.

They are valued at $3,500, and it is expected that for the present at least their use will be largely confined to that part of Canada. This innovation in farming will bring to the mind of many the sleam plough in use in Great Britain, but the mdous operandi is vastly different. There the ploughs are worked by engines at both ends of the field, and it is claimed that the Canadian steam plough is superior. The arrangement in England costs $15 000, while an improved system is promised here for little more than one-third the figure.

CELEBRATED BELLS.

Those made at the MoShane Bell Foundry, Baltimore, Md., U.S. A., appear to be in large demand, especially in the Domision, 115,000 lbs. of copper and tin having been cast into Bells since Jen. 1st. Nearly every steamship coming from Baltimore to Halifax bas several on board destined for some church in Canada Each one pleases the purchaser, and all delight the ears, while some have said they could not praise them enough, as they are so pocultarly excellent in their purity and sweetness of tone.

THE OHBISTIAN BROTHERS' SAINT.

CANONIZATION OF JOHN BAPTIST DE LA BAILE -HIS EDUCATIONAL WORK.

Another saint is to be added to the calendar. The venerable John Baptist de la Salle, founder of the Order of the Christian Brothers, is to be canonized. The greatness of his work has been canonized. The greatness of his work has been attested by its results. The sanctity of his life made it a model for all men. All that remained was for the escred Congregation of hites to investigate and discuss certain miraculous occurrences said to have been wrought through his intercession. This has been done, and the following decree which has been issued, was lately received at the chief institution of the Order of Christian Brothers in this city:— ROUEN DECREE

FOR THE BEATHFUATION AND CONONIZATION OF THE VENERABLE SERVANT OF GOD, JOHN BAPTIST DE LA FALLE, FOUNDER OF THE CONGREGATION OF THE BROTHERS OF THE CHBISTIAN SCHOOL

CONGERGATION OF THE BROTHERS OF THE CHRISTIAN SCHOOL.

By a decree of the Sacred Congregation of Rites, dated May 23, 1879 Our Most holy wather. Pope Leo XIII., graciously conceded that the validity of the processes ordered by apostolic authority regarding three miracles, said to have been wrought by God, through the intercession of the aforesaid venerable servant of God, John Saptist de la Salle, be examined in an ordinary meeting of said Sacred Congregation without the intervention and votum of the consultors.

Accordingly the Most Eminant and Most Rev. Cardinal, John Beptist Pitra, the poneus in the aforesaid cause, at the instance of Rev. Propher Robustin, Procurator General of the Congregation of the Brothers of the Christian Schools and postulator of this cause, at a special ordinary neeting of this Sacred Congregation of Rites, appointed according to particular instructions of Our Most Holy Father published November 20, 1878, and convened at the Valican on the day here below stated, proposed he following dubium—viz., whether the validity of the processes instituted by apostolic authority with regard to the miracles in the diocesses of Rouen, Paris and Orleans is well established; whether the witnesses were culy and rightly examined; and whether the laws alleged were legitimately applied in the case in point and with the effect for which they were intended. Thereupon the same said Congregation having carefully weighted the matter in all its parts and having heard the opinion and read the votum of the Rev. Augustine Caprara. Promoter of the Fatth, gave answer in the affirmative. Aftractive seu constare.

PHILADELPHIA, May 16 .- A machine was tested here today, for separating unburnt coal, garbage rags, paper, bones, tin cans, etc., from refuse gathered in the streets. It worked satisfactorily, separating a load of refuse every three minutes. Machines will be placed in various points of the city. They will cave great expense in carrying stuff, and be a source of great profit to the owners. Ashes carried to dumps contains forty per cent of coal that can be used for fuel. The amount that can be extracted in a year is estimated at 300,000 tons. Bones and other articles extracted will also be valuable. NEW YORK, May 18 .- The World's Washington special says: The British Minister has forwarded the warrant for Sheridan's arrost. obtained from the State Dspartment, to the British Coneul in New York, with directions to have it served the moment the evidence against him arrived from England. This evidence has now arrived, and hence, pending the arrest of Sheridan, no further steps are likely to be taken at the State Department until after the examination of Sheridan by the U.S. Commissioner in New York. He will forward the report to Washington, and if the charges are deemed sufficient to warrant extradition, an order will be issued from tue State Department, delivering Sheridan to the British officers. The charge against Sheridan is complicity in the Phonix Park murdera.

The State Department is in daily expectation of the demand for warrants for the arrest of Walsh and Tynan. The British Minister said yesterday he had notified all the Consuls to keep a sharp lookout for Tynan and cause his arrest the moment they discovered his whereabouts. He will be arrested on the apprehension and said: "It only bears out Gate. All those, when grown, will restore what I for some time believed, that the war-this fine square to its original beauty. 116-W8 SECRET SOCIETIES AND THEIR EFFEOTS.

THEIR HOSTILITY TO THE SESUITS. M. Claudio Jannot has republished the important work of Deschamps on the origin and workings of Continental secret societies, adding a third volume made up of modern correspondence, which shows the history of the sects down to these days in which we live, and in which the evidence of secret upheavals of European society are so manifest. M. Jannot is admirable in his demonstration of the moral unsoundness of all secret societies however harmless. In the case of a religious Order the member publicly consecrates himself or herself to God by three vows. But the Gospel is the limit of his obligation. His obedience is an enlightened surrender of the will to the authority, and it differs only in degree from the subjection of every Catholic to the commandments of God and of the Church. His poverty is only a carrying out of the Apostolic precept; and his vow of chastity is the adoption of a higher standard of purity than that of the Sacrament of Matrimony. The oaths planted in the city and suburbs of Quebec of secret societies are the yielding up of the human will to masters who in their turn have yielded up their independence to the higher grades of the craft. The simple Carbonaro may know nothing of the murders which he has sworn to support and, if necessary, to perpetrate. He shows the danger into which modern princes fall, of becoming the creatures of these societies. Louis Napoleon owed his empire to them; but their influence caused his downfall and the effsorment of his dynasty. The author also shows that the secret societies are necessarily obscurantist. Their hostility to the Jesuits is founded upon the fact that the Fathers of that society excel in every department of human science. Their pupils pass the best army and law examinations, and their; members are as superior as astronomers and mathemsticians as they are in theology. The Jesuits ohristianize education, and the sects know that their great chance is the elimination of all religion from the school. The results of modern education may be seen in Germany, where unsuccess in examination is frequently followed by suicide. This Easter the cases are in excess of last year. Several lads in Berlin have taken away

ARBOR DAY AT QUEBEO.

YE ANTIENT CAPITAL EN PETE-OVER FIVE THOUSAND TREES PLANTED.

QUEREC, May 16 .- Arbor Day was celebrated here today by all classes and people with the utmost enthusiasm. As early as 5.30 this am. numbers of citizens were seen carrying young trees from the country to be pleated in the city, while the country people, who must have left their domicties before daylight, drove a brisk trade in young trees.

The weather was all that could be desired. A little after ten a. m. the fire brigade and a detachment of "A" Batlery, headed by their band, marched up Lowis street to the Parliament House, and soon after the planting began by the Lieutenant-Governor turning the first sod and placing his tree in the ground on the right side of the Parliament House. His Grace the Archbishop planted the next tree on the left corner of the same grounds. Trees were then planted in honor of the Lord Bishop by the Rev. Mr. Housman, the Treasurer, the Minister of Crown Lands and the other Ministers in succession. The members of the Arbor Committee planted trees in honor of the Premier, the Mayor, the Hon. Mr. Joly and the ex-Ministers. Nobody was left unrepresented; all were satisfled. Even the consular representatives were included, as at the request of Mr. Joly, Mr. O. O. Perreault, the French Vice Consul at Montreal, planted a tree in the name of France; His Excellency the Count Premio Real planted nearly fifty trees, and one especially was planted at his request by the Hon. Messrs. Lynch and Joly in the name of the Queen of Spain. After a great number of trees were planted in this vicinity, the procession refermed and marched down Lewis street to St. Lewis Gate, where, close to the summit of the gate. on the grassy mound of the Glacie, three tress were planted, one by Colonel Cotton in honor of Lord Dufferin, the other by the same gentleman in honor of the Hon. Minister of Militia, Hon. Mr. Caron, and the other by U. S. Commissioner's warrant, which can be done without any demand being made on the State Department. He said also he would not ask for the arrest of Walsh until he had sevidence against him.

Sheridan on learning the substance of the World's Washington despatch manifested no apprehension and said: "It only bears out what I for some time believed, that the war-Commandant and a few filends then took and Madame Langelier then proceeded to the Terrace, attended by the Lt.-Governor and military staff, the aldermen and town councillors and the Recorder, etc., where they arrived about noon, the band playing on the way down St. Lewis street. The Lt.-Governor said he was requested by the Mayor to announce that three trees would be planted, in honor of the Queen, the Governor General and the Princess Louise, for whom he proposed three cheers, which were heartly given, the band playing the National Anthem as the first tree was planted. The Mayor and Corporation then proceeded eastward and westward, planting the Terrace border grass plots with eims and maples. The City presented His Worship the Mayor with a silver plok! and the City Council the Lady Mayoress with a silver spade, both with ebony bandles, as souvenirs of the occasion. The Commissioner of Crown Lands presented the Governor, the Mayor, and Hon. Mr. Joly with "Arbor Day" circulars, illuminated and printed on satin. Several elequent addresses were delivered by the Lieut,-Governor and Messrs. Lynch, Joly, Langeller, Taillon and Blanchet, after which the meeting dispersed. In the afternoon tree-planting on an extensive scale was carried on at Spencer Wood. and in the evening the Garrison Club planted a huge elm, when a photograph of a number of the members of the Club, with the Queen's Own Canadian Hussars in the back ground was successfully accomplished in commemo ration of the day. Nearly all the educational establishments joined in celebrating the day while the citizens yied with one another in carrying out the idea. There is but little doubt that upwards of 5,000 trees have been while the district around has been as eage in celebrating the event as our town.

THE MONTMAGNY ELECTION.
