Public Opinion.

London Advertiser: The sentence of three months' imprisonment meted out to Harvey, the Guelph civic defaulter, by Justice Chadwick, will prove a very poor deterrent to men placed under similar temptations.

Toronto World (Con.): The whole world is becoming awakened to the fact that there is such a grand country as Canada. Wait a little while and see what advertising is doing for us. Money will come, people will come, prosperity will come, all in the wake of this lucky boom in our vast mineral areas.

Montreal Herald (Lib.): Reorganized in such a manner as to give the higher thought, the loftier patriotism, the cleaner conscience, in a word the better element in the party that supremacy in the party councils which of late years has been filched away by self seeking politicians—reorganized on such a basis the Conservative party might one day regain the confidence of the people.

Montreal Gazette (Con.): Sir Richard Cartwright's opinion on the United States election is thus delivered: "Anything that will put an end to doubt and suspense, and produce order and stability in the U.S., must be good for Canada." Yes, and a declaration of the Government's tariff policy, which would put an end to doubt and suspense and produce stability in Canada, would be still better for Canada.

Mail-Enterprise (Con.): Certainly if the principle of action frankly announced by so many Liberals—not the filling of vacancies by the appointment of party friends, but the complete revolution of the public service when the Administration changes—is to prevail the country is in for an era of boodle, through which party workers will reap much, and the people will lose a great deal both in public morality and in money.

Montreal Gazette (Con.): But one thing is certain, the National Policy has commended itself by long experience to the sober judgment of the people of Canada, and the Laurier Government can only keep in power by carrying it out. The moment they attempt to carry out their pledges and destroy it, their doom is sealed. Conservative principles must triumph, even though the Conservative party is not in power to administer them, as it best knows how.

Toronto Globe (Lib.): The cancelling of 180 mail contracts in a week shows that Mr. Mulock intends running the Postoffice Department as a department should be run. On twelve contracts relet, involving about $1,600 a year, a saving of $300 has been effected. This shows that the people have been paying about 19 per cent. too much for the carriage of mails. Much of that great post-office deficit must have found its way back to the campaign workers.

Montreal Gazette (Con.): Hon. Dr. Borden, is becoming more and more popular as the officers of the different corps are coming into personal contact with him. His speech last Friday evening at the banquet given to Lieut.-Col. Cole, marked him not only as an intensely practical man, but one whose knowledge of the Canadian Militia was unsurpassed. It was easy to believe his words that his heart was bound up in the militia. The thirty-three years he has spent in the service will stand him in good stead in his present office.

Montreal Gazette (Con.): It is doubtful if, from a party point of view, anything was ever gained by suppressing the utterances of opponents, that is, of course, when what opponents said was intrinsically worth production. From a business point of view the argument is all in favour of treating foe and friend alike, so far as a fair setting out of their political positions is concerned. And, either from business considerations or an increasing sense of fairness, the latter practice is becoming a general one, at least among newspapers that aspire to a first rank in their respective communities.
