

The planned October mission is based on this concept with firms having heavy oil expertise slated to visit three appropriate oilfields in China.