

ARTICLE VII

The present Agreement shall be without prejudice to other existing Agreements between the two Governments or to existing multilateral Conventions to which the two Governments are party or to the views of either Government with regard to the Law of the Sea.

ARTICLE VIII

This Agreement shall enter into force on May 15, 1982. It shall remain in force until the expiration of eighteen months from the day on which either Government shall give notice of its intention to terminate this Agreement.