

(Mr. Qian, China)

possible abuse must be strictly guarded against. Specific provisions should ensure a balance between the rights and obligations of the requesting State on the one hand and those of the requested State on the other, and give full play to the role of the future organization.

Mr. KOSIN (Yugoslavia):

... On a more concrete level, we are entering a year with more well-founded expectations for a movement from arms control to genuine disarmament, with clearer stands as to the goals of negotiations, with more specific proposals as to the means of their accomplishment, and a more precise time framework as regards the conclusion of the three most important negotiating undertakings.

(Mr. Kosin, Yugoslavia)

I am referring to the strategic arms reduction treaty (START), the reduction of troops and arms in Europe and the conclusion of the convention on the prohibition of chemical weapons and their destruction.
