

- (ii) Testing, calibration and examination by inspectors;
- (iii) Routine use and maintenance.

8. Provisions governing sample-taking, on-site analyses of samples and on-site analysis equipment

- (a) Sample-taking from munitions, notably the standardization of methods for each different type of munition present at the facility
- (b) Sample-taking from bulk stocks
- (c) Other sample-taking
- (d) Duplicates and additional samples
- (e) On-site analyses (e.g., provisions concerning on-site/in-house analyses, analytical methods, equipment, precision and accuracy of analyses)

9. Administrative arrangements

- (a) Preparations for arrival of inspectors
- (b) Transport for inspectors
- (c) Accommodation for inspectors
- (d) ...

10. Services to be provided*

Such services should include, but are not necessarily restricted to, the following:

- medical and health services;
- office space for inspectors;
- laboratory space for inspectors;
- technical assistance;
- telephone and telex;
- power and cooling water supplies for instruments;
- interpretation services.