ARTICLE 11

Transmission of Documents and Objects and Authentication

- When the request for assistance concerns the transmission of records and documents, the Requested State may transmit the originals or certified true copies thereof.
- The Requesting State shall, upon request, return any original documents or records, or articles furnished in execution of requests as soon as possible.
- 3. Insofar as not prohibited by the law of the Requested State, documents, objects and records shall be transmitted in a form or accompanied by such certification as may be requested by the Requesting State in order to make them admissible according to the law of the Requesting State.
- Evidence or documents transmitted pursuant to this Treaty shall not require any form of authentication, save as specified in paragraph 3.

ARTICLE 12

Service of Documents

- The Requested State shall effect service of any legal document transmitted for this purpose by the Requesting State.
- 2. Any request for the service of a document requiring the appearance of a person before an authority in the Requesting State shall be transmitted a reasonable time before the scheduled appearance.
- 3. The Requested State shall return as proof of service a dated receipt signed by the person served or a declaration signed by the officer effecting service, specifying the form and date of service.
- A person who has been served pursuant to this article with a legal document calling for an
