Precautions

The same rules apply in the United States as at home, only more so. You are usually at greater risk than locals; indeed, in some areas of the United States, tourists and non-locals could be targeted. Accordingly, you should keep to the following rules:

- ✓ Know where you are and where you are going at all times. Carefully plan road trips in advance.
- ✓ Do not pick up hitchhikers.
- ✓ Keep valuables out of sight, and never leave them in a parked vehicle.
- ✓ Leave a copy of your itinerary and proof of citizenship (e.g., Canadian birth certificate or certificate of Canadian citizenship) with a family member or friend who can be contacted in an emergency.
- ✓ Phone home if you do not have a fixed schedule.
- ✓ Keep a separate record of your travellers' cheques, credit cards and medical insurance, and ensure that the information is also available to someone back home.
