SUPPLEMENTARY CONVENTION TO THE SUPPLEMENTARY CONVENTION EMENTARY CONVENTION TO THE SOFT EMERICA FOR BETWEEN HER MAJESTY AND THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA FOR THE MUTUAL EXTRADITION OF FUGITIVE CRIMINALS

Signed at Washington, December 13, 1900

CO.

dit

et fas

crit

ne est res

GO

011

Canada and the United States of America, being desirous of modifying Canada and the United States of America, being an account of which and supplementing in certain respects the list of crimes on account of which and supplementing in certain respects the list of child which and supplementing in certain respects the list of child which conventions in force extradition may be granted under the Treaties and Conventions in force extradition may be granted under the Treaties and In force between Canada and the United States of America, particularly the Convention between Canada and the United States of America and Her Britannic Majest. between Canada and the United States of America and Her Britannic Majesty on concluded by the United States of America and all frauds which are punished on concluded by the United States of America and frauds which are punishable December 13, 1900, so as to comprehend any and all frauds which are punishable contracting states, particularly those managements. December 13, 1900, so as to comprehend any and all Titude states particularly those which criminally by the laws of both contracting states, particularly those which criminally by the laws of both contracting states, have decided to conclude occur in connection with transactions in securities, have appointed as the occur in connection with transactions in securities, and have appointed as their a Supplementary Convention for that purpose and have appointed as their respective Plenipotentiaries:

Canada: Lester Bowles Pearson, Secretary of State for External Affairs in the Government of Canada, and Stuart Sinclair Garson, Minister of Justice and Attorney-General in the Government of Canada, and

Don C. Bliss, Minister of the United States of America at Ottawa, Don C. Bliss, Minister of the United States of The in good and due form, have agreed as follows:

ARTICLE I

The enumeration numbered 11 in Article I of the Supplementary Extra. The enumeration numbered 11 in Article 1 of the Supplementary Extra-dition Convention signed on December 13, 1900, between the United States dition Convention signed on December 13, 1900, between the United States dition Convention signed on December 15, 125, amended to read as follows: of America and Her Britannic Majesty, is hereby amended to read as follows: ica and Her Britannic Majesty, who or valuable securities by false 11A "Obtaining property, money or any person by deceit or false 11A "Obtaining property, money of valuable by false by false pretences or by defrauding the public or any person by deceit or falsehood pretences or by defrauding the public or such deceit or falsehood or pretences or by defrauding the public of any pretences or by defrauding the public of any pretences or by defrauding the public of any falsehood or falsehood or any or other fraudulent means, whether such deceit or falsehood or any or other fraudulent means, whether such deceit or falsehood or any or other fraudulent means, whether such deceit or falsehood or any or other fraudulent means, whether such deceit or falsehood or any or other fraudulent means, whether such deceit or falsehood or any or other fraudulent means, whether such deceit or falsehood or any or other fraudulent means, whether such deceit or falsehood or any or other fraudulent means, whether such deceit or falsehood or any or other fraudulent means, whether such deceit or falsehood or any or other fraudulent means, whether such deceit or falsehood or any or other fraudulent means, whether such deceit or falsehood or any or other fraudulent means, whether such deceit or falsehood or any or other fraudulent means, whether such deceit or falsehood or any or other fraudulent means, and the falsehood or any or other fraudulent means, and the falsehood or any or other fraudulent means, and the falsehood or any or other fraudulent means are considered in the falsehood or any or other falsehood or any or other falsehood or any or other falsehood or other falseh or other fraudulent means, would not amount to a false pretence.

dulent means would or would in connection with schemes devised or 11B "Making use of the mails in connection with schemes devised or 11B "Making use of the public or for the purpose of obtaining the public or for the public

11B "Making use of the mails in connection the purpose of obtaining intended to deceive or defraud the public or for the purpose of obtaining money under false pretences." ARTICLE II atification shall be exchanged at Convention shall enter into force on the day.

The present Supplementary Convention shall be ratified and the instruments of ratification shall be exchanged at Ottawa.

The present Supplementary Convention shall enter into force on the day. The present Supplementary Convention and it shall continue in of the exchange of the instruments of ratification and it shall continue in the exchange of the instruments of the Supplementary Convention of the exchange of the instruments of rauntation continue in force as though it were an integral part of the Supplementary Convention force as though it were an integral part of Article II of that Supplement. of December 13, 1900, subject to the provisions of Article II of that Supplement. ary Convention with respect to termination.

Convention with respect to terrained Plenipotentiaries have signed the In witness whereof, the undersigned Plenipotentiaries have signed the In witness whereor, the undersigned refined thereto their respective present Supplementary Convention and have affixed thereto their respective seals.

DONE in duplicate at Ottawa, this 26th day of October, 1951.

For Canada:

L. B. PEARSON STUART S. GARSON

For the United States of America:

DON C. BLISS