

the province to recipients of benefit under any of the aforementioned Acts; or

(c) a recipient of mother's allowance.

9. Notwithstanding subparagraph (b) of paragraph 8 there may be included in the reimbursement claim any additional relief payments made by the province or by a municipality to persons described in the said subparagraph and the number of persons to whom such payments are made if such persons are unemployed and in need.

10. There shall also be excluded from the reimbursement claim payments made in respect of

(a) medical, hospital, nursing, dental and optical care and drugs and dressings,

(b) funeral expenses,

(c) all travelling expenses except those, if Canada is not contributing thereto under some other arrangement, that are made for the purpose of

(i) returning a recipient of unemployment assistance and his dependents, if any, to his normal place of residence under an arrangement to which the municipality or the government of the province to which he is being returned has agreed in advance,

(ii) enabling a recipient of unemployment assistance or dependent member of his family to obtain assured employment as certified by the National Employment Service, or

(iii) enabling a recipient of unemployment assistance or a dependent member of his family to obtain needed medical, hospital or nursing home care which cannot be provided at his normal place of residence; and

(d) the cost of administration.

11. There shall be deducted from the reimbursement claim

(a) an amount calculated by multiplying the average per person monthly cost of assistance by

(i) .30 per cent of the population during the first year of this agreement,

(ii) .35 per cent of the population during the second year of this agreement,

(iii) .40 per cent of the population during the third year of this agreement, and

(iv) .45 per cent of the population during the fourth and subsequent years of this agreement,

(b) an amount calculated by multiplying the average per person monthly cost of assistance by the decrease in the number of recipients of mothers' allowances.

12. The average per person monthly cost of assistance shall be calculated by dividing the total of the payments made during the month, as set forth in the reimbursement claim, by the total number of persons, including dependents, who received assistance during the said month as set forth in the reimbursement claim.

13. For the purpose of subparagraph (b) of paragraph 11, the decrease in the number of recipients of mothers' allowances shall be calculated as follows:

(a) the average monthly percentage of the population of the province who were recipients of mothers' allowances during each twelve-month period from the first day of July 1945, to the thirtieth day of June prior to the month to which the reimbursement claim relates shall be determined, and in determining these percentages the latest estimate made by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics and published by the Queen's Printer at Ottawa of the population of the province on the first day of June or nearest date thereto in each twelve-month period shall be used;

(b) the average monthly percentage determined for the twelve-month period ending the thirtieth day of June immediately preceding the month to which the reimbursement claim relates shall be subtracted from the highest percentage ascertained pursuant to subparagraph (a) of this paragraph in respect of any other twelve-month period;

(c) from the difference ascertained pursuant to subparagraph (b) of this paragraph there shall be subtracted .10 per cent;

(d) the difference ascertained pursuant to subparagraph (c) of this paragraph shall be multiplied by the population; and

(e) in the event that the calculation in subparagraph (c) of this paragraph results in a negative quantity, subparagraph (b) of paragraph 11 shall have no application.

14. The reimbursement claim shall

(a) be submitted within six (6) months next following the last day of the month to which it relates, but no claim submitted by in respect of any month prior to the actual date on which this agreement is executed shall be disqualified solely on the ground that it was not submitted within the said six (6) months, and

(b) contain the following certificate signed by the provincial auditor:

"I here certify that the claim for reimbursement has been prepared in accordance with the terms and conditions set forth in an agreement respecting unemployment assistance dated the _____ day of _____ 195____, and made between the Government of Canada and the Government of the province of _____".

16. Canada shall, on receipt of a reimbursement claim that has been prepared in accordance with this agreement, pay fifty (50) per cent of the total claim.
