

tended doing. I was so very well treated when I spent a year in London that I am very anxious to help make this party's visit to us as pleasant as possible.

Mrs. Ard Marshall
thought that the party might walk or take
cars in the morning
drive on the mountain after lunch at the Windsor and that if it were possible for Mr. Lill
to entertain them at tea it would be a great pleasure.

She also suggested a party, if possible, in-