

THE TEMPLAR

A CRUSADER FOR SOCIAL REFORM

CANADA'S Great • Prohibition • Weekly

REACHES EVERY ENGLISH-SPEAKING NEIGHBORHOOD FROM

CAPE BRETON TO VANCOUVER.

It deals with Politics and Politicians, and all the advanced incidents of the Great Reform.

It gives the news of the Temperance movement in all the Provinces.

It is profusely Illustrated with Portraits and Sketches.

J. W. Bengough, Canada's greatest cartoonist, contributes a fable every week, under the title "Prohibition Aesop."

Union of all Temperance organizations into one Canadian national society is advocated.

It has Departments for the Young, and for White Cross or Social Purity Work.

Canadianism, Cumulative Voting, Co-operation, Land Reform, and the Abolition of White Slavery, are on its program.

READ IT! SPREAD IT!! SUPPORT IT!!!

SUBSCRIPTION PRICE, - - $1.00 PER ANNUM

W. W. BUCHANAN, Editor and Manager, HAMILTON, ONT.