

G.

GARNISHEE—Continued.

	RULE.	PAGE.
debt attachment book to be kept	947	124
if judgment or order is other than for the recovery of money, parties may be examined if difficulty arises	948	124 costs of attachment of debts to be in discretion of court or judge	1180	155

GROUNDS FOR AND AGAINST APPEAL. See Appeal to Court of Appeal, and Appeal from County Court.

GUARDIANS, infant may defend by guardian	313	43
guardian may be appointed for infant personally served	261	36 motion for appointment may be made	262	36
guardian of lunatic may defend action	335	47
on non-appearance of lunatic, plaintiff may apply for appoint- ment of guardian	336	47
guardian ad litem to be appointed for infants and persons of unsound mind served with judgment or order	337	47
guardian may be appointed on personal application of person requiring appointment.	339	48 guardian of infant to be notified before order made dispensing with payment into court	528	71 petition to deal with infant's estate may ask for appointment of guardian	997	131 master in chancery not to have jurisdiction in matters relat- ing to opposed applications respecting guardianship of infants	30	7 guardians (except guardians ad litem) to be appointed in same manner as receivers	122	17 master to fix time for accounts, if not fixed by court	123	17 on default to pass account, guardian may forfeit salary and be charged interest	123	17

H.

HABEAS CORPUS, to be heard before Divisional Court if referred by judge	219	29
HEIR AT LAW, question may be settled notwithstanding absence of heir at law	316	43
HEIRS, advertisements for heirs to be issued if necessary	60	11
HEIRS—ADMINISTRATION ACTION. See Administration Action. HIGH COURT, judge to hold sittings every week except during vacations	210	28 order of business prescribed	211	28
cases to be taken in order on list	212	28
to sit for trials at times fixed	213	28
one or more judges to be selected as vacation judges during long vacation	214	28 vacation judges to sit together or separately	215	28
orders of vacation judges reversible only by the vacation Judge, Division Court, or Court of Appeal	215	28
Divisional Courts to hold 3 sittings every year	216	28
Divisional Court of Chancery Division to hold 3 sittings every year	217	29
Divisional Courts to sit at further times when necessary	218	29
business to be taken before Divisional Court prescribed	219	29
six cases to be set down in the daily list	220	29 cases in daily list not disposed of, to be placed at head of next day's list	223	30
if either party ready, case may proceed	222	29
if neither party ready, case may be struck out	222	30 cases postponed from peremptory list by order or default, to be placed at end of general list	221	29 for appeal, See Appeal to Court of Appeal.		