A BOWLING SERMON

GRAND CIRCUIT CLOSES WITH SEVEN EVENTS

Braden Direct Wins Free-for-All in Fast Time-Five Heats

DETROIT, Sept. 19 .- Seven events, including a free-for-all pace, which Braden

Cochato was at the black horse's side all the way, and they raced neck-and-neck to the tinish. Pickles finished strongly in the second heat, but the winner had too much speed in reserve.

Geers, driving Marta Bellini, won the third heat of the 2.17 trot, after Dr. Thorne had taken the first two. Then Murphy drove George Rex to victory in the fourth heat, but Snow's horse made victory practically certain by finishing second. Then he took the final heat by inches from the black coit.

Peter Billiken had Nata Prime to contend with, but won an impressive victory Peter Billiken had Nata Prime to contend with, but won an impressive victory in the 2.11 trot. Marietta, a strong favorite, did not disappoint her backers in the 2.11 pace. Princess Patch tried nard in the second heat, but the black mare outsprinted her. Favorites won both the 2.17 pace and the 2.08 pace. Neither Cupanola H. nor Margot Hal was seriously threatened in any of the heats. Dr. Holcomb was the only starter in the Michigan Horse-Breeders' Futurity, for three-year-old pacers. He raced one heat in 2.23¼, and was awarded the event.

In the first heat of the 2.17 trot, Baroness Helen, turning onto the stretch, slipped and fell. Driver Fleming was thrown in the midst of a large field of racers, but he and the horse escaped with bruises.
