HAMILTON CLOSE FAVORITES FAIL

Only One Public Choice in Front on Last Day—
Liberty Hall a Winner.

By a Staff Reporter.
HAMILTON, July 2.—There was a fair sized crowd at Hamilton today to witness the closing day races of the first summer meeting of the Hamilton Jockey Club. Just as the Toronto train arrived at the track a heavy rain fell, and it drizzled all afternoon. The track was muddy and the books once more reaped a harvest. Valas, winner of the third race, being the only favorite to win. Valas was well, even money and had the race all to himself. The remaining six events went to one second choice and five four-prior ones.

The Junior Handicap, the carded feature, was the first race on the Canadian circuit where two-year-olds were asked to go 5 1/2 furlongs. Dr. J. S. Tyne's choice, King Neptune, the second choice, in the setting was the winner. King Neptune broke very slow and where Taplin took him to the center of the track, and after a hard stretch drive the son of Sea King-Took won going away by a nose from the rank outsider Reserve. Reserve raced by the favorite Pecky at the turn for home and looked like a sure winner. Phil Unger finished well and got tired.

Liberty Hall, recently purchased by Charlie Crew of Toronto, from the Davies stable, captured the first race of the day. Liberty Hall was 2 to 1 favorite, and after being shuffled back at the start came on the outside and won from the peacemaker Ade Anne. Lady Lightning took down the small and of the purse. Crystal, the favorite, was away well, but did not seem to like the going.

Crystal, a 10 to 1 shot, just lasted long enough to stall off the public choice, Marion Galt, in the second race. Red Fire and Galtley raced in front most of the way, and when they swung for home Marion Galtley and Charlie Miller's Shrove Tide came very fast. This was Shrove Tide's first year and he ran a very good one.

In the fifth race Slumberer easily beat the favorite, Aprisa. Aprisa set the pace for the first mile, where Slumberer raced into a three-length lead, which he easily held to the finish. Subject was third all the way.

The last two races were run on the turf. After the Rump had delayed the field and led all the way by two lengths, Lucky George, the favorite, was an easy second and old J. H. Houghton had little opposition in the show. The "good thing," Galaxy, backed down to a well-played second choice, finished away back.

New Haven, who could not run six furlongs the other day, came to life and made a runaway affair of the last race. New Haven was 15 to 1, and when the gate was sprung rushed into a long lead, which he held to the end. The favorite, finished second, a length ahead of Ford Mat.

The Toronto rider, Jeff Action, carried off the riding honors for the day with two wins.

Most of the owners shipped to Port Erie, where the meeting begins tomorrow afternoon. Summary:
