

lottenburg, eastward of Point Johnson. In front of this township are several small islands.

Between Charlottenburg and Cornwall is a small tract possessed by the Indians, who have a considerable village on the south shore, called St. Regis ; and in this part of the river St. Lawrence lie several islands, one called Petite Isle St. Regis, immediately opposite their village ; and another, Grande Isle St. Regis, a little higher up, opposite to the town of Cornwall.

In the rear of Charlottenburg is the township of Kenyon.

The township of Cornwall adjoins next ; — in the front is the town, of a mile square, lying in a commodious bay of the river, and watered by a small rivulet which runs through the town. Two branches of the river aux Raisins pass through the lands of this township ; and in the front thereof are the Isles aux mille Roches, et des Chenaux Ecartées ; Grand Isle St. Regis lying in front of the town. In the rear of this township is the township of Roxburgh.

The township of Osnabruck lies above Cornwall ; the river aux Raisins rises here in several branches ; it has two other streams which run into St. Lawrence in front, off which lies the Isle au Longue Sault, Isle de trois Chenaux Ecartées, Isles au Diable, et Isle au Chat.

The Rapid, called the Long Sault, lies in front of this township ; the boats in going up keep the north shore, in a great measure to avoid the rapidity of
