

Law No. 78 shall not revive any By-Law repealed by the said By-Law No. 78.

2nd. That there shall annually be levied and collected within the said Township, upon every dog one dollar, and upon every bitch two dollars.

3rd. That any person in possession of any dog or bitch, or who shall suffer any dog or bitch to remain about his or her house or premises, shall be deemed the owner of such dog or bitch for all the purposes of this By-Law.

4th. That no dog or bitch shall be permitted at any period of the year to run at large within the said Township without a collar about the neck, with a tag or check attached thereto, numbered and bearing thereon the name of the said Township, and every dog or bitch found at large without such collar and tag or check, as aforesaid, may be destroyed or sold, for the benefit of the said Township and of the person capturing and selling the same; one-half the proceeds arising from such sale shall be paid over by the person effecting the sale, to the Treasurer of the said Township, for the uses thereof, and the other half may be retained by such person for his own use.

5th. That it shall be the duty of the owner of every dog or bitch within the said Township, to register such dog or bitch in the office of the Clerk of the said Township, who shall record the name of such owner, the number of such dog or bitch, and furnish a tag or check, required by the fourth clause of this By-Law, to be attached to the collar of such dog or bitch.

6th. That the owner of any dog or bitch within the said Township who shall refuse or neglect to register such dog or bitch, as hereinbefore required, shall, upon conviction thereof before any Justice of the Peace for the County of Brant, on the oath or affirmation of any credible witness, forfeit and pay, at the discretion of such Justice, a penalty not exceeding the sum of $5, together with the costs of prosecution, and in default of payment of the fine or penalty imposed and costs, it shall be lawful for the convicting Justice to issue his warrant to any constable of the said County, commanding him to levy the same of the goods and chattels of such offender and in case no such goods and chattels can be found whereof such fine and costs can be levied as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for such Justice to commit such offender to the common gaol of the said County, for any term not exceeding fourteen days, in the discretion of such Justice, unless such fine and costs of committal shall be sooner paid.
