

See Jullus

art.—The
its volume
not studied
en are.

—The lark
perpendicu-

sphere—
moon-goddess
generally re-
nering a quiver

lor. Light is

eyes.—The weary and
which they rose.

to marriage.
ge.

for an even-
announcing
or "winds"

olds.—The air.

— exhaling

reading is

roof ornament in this
lacing tombs
churches.

customary
and Romans to their ashes in scribed with the
d, and were
pictures illus-

n—some per-
in this village
at in which
re, withstood

The infinitive
anza are the

s phrase does
belongs gram-
in "Their."

poetry. "Un-
as some ur
the "uncout
ceding stan-

