

ARTICLE V.

There shall be a Monthly Teachers' Meeting for each School, consisting of the Superintendent, Visitors, and Teachers, at which meeting persons may be proposed and admitted as Teachers, until sanctioned or disallowed by the Committee. Arrangements shall be made to canvas for Scholars, and visit sick or absent scholars. The Teachers' Meetings shall have authority to make rules and regulations for their own proceedings, subject to the revisal of the Committee, as well as to recommend to the Committee such rules and regulations for the government of the Schools, as they may from time to time, deem advisable. Each Teachers' Meeting shall appoint a Librarian and a Local Secretary, from its own number. It shall be the duty of the Secretary,—

1st. To keep a record of the proceedings of each meeting, to be laid before the Committee at its next meeting.

2nd. To make minutes, under the direction of the Superintendent, of any interesting circumstances connected with the School, and renew the Class-books when necessary.

3rd. To give notice of the Monthly Teachers' Meetings.

4th. To report the state of the School to the Committee, when required.

The Librarian shall have charge of the Library, and other books used in the School, and shall superintend and keep account of their distribution.

ARTICLE VI.

There shall be a General Meeting of the Committee, and the members of the Teachers' Meetings, in January, April, July, and October; in order to converse on the state of the Schools,—to contribute for mutual edification, the result of individual experience and observation on methods of teaching,—to en-
