MONDAY MORNING DECEMBER 1 1919

ALESMEN-Write for list of openings and full particulars. Earn $2060 to $10,000 yearly. Big demand for men, inexperienced or experienced, city or traveling. Nat'l Salesmen's Tr. Assn., Dept. 958. Chicago.

CLASSIFIED

ADVERTISING

rielp Wanted.

PLASTERERS wanted for out.of.town work; heat on building; 75c per hour; time and a half overtime. Apply E. J. Curry, 56-58 King St. West, Toronto; Phone Adelaide 1829, at my expense.

WANTED-Boy about 13 years old, for position in office where he will be given every opportunity to advance himself. Telephone Main 5308 between

WANTED-Housemaid, at 205 Warre road; good wages; parlor maid kept Telephone Hillcrest 2766 for appoint

Help Wanted-female DOD WAGES FOR HOME WORK. We

bod WAGES FOR HOME WORK. We need you to make socks on the fast, easily learned ...uto Knitter. Ex-perience unnecessary. Distance im-material, Positively no canvassing farn supplied. Particulars 3c stamp. Dept. 151 C, Auto Knitter Co., Toronto.

Salesmen Wanted.

Situations Wanted.

MINING MANAGER, long experience

Business Opportunities.

Business Cards. CHIMNEY, furnace, stovepipe cleaning. All kinds odd jobs. War Veterans. Adelaide 214.

Bicycles and Motorcycles.

BICYCLES wanted for cash. McLeod.

Chiropractic Specialist.

DR. F. H. SECKETAN, graduate specia ist; Dr. Ida Secretan, graduate special-ist-One Bloor Street East, cor. Yonge, Imperial Bank Building. For appoint-ment, phone North $548.

Dancing

A BEGINNERS' CLASS forming to meet

Tuesday and Friday evenings, com-mencing Tuesday, Dec. 2, 8 o'clock. This is your last opportunity to learn the modern dances before the holiday eason. To secure place enroll now, as our classes fill rapidly. Terms, $5 eight lessons. Dovercourt College of Dancing. Parkdale 862. C. F. Davis,

BALLROOM AND STAGE dancing. In

rard three nine.

lividual and class instruction. S. Fitchener Smith, 4 Fairview boulevard.

o private studios. Yonge and Bloor rrard and Logan. Telephone Ger

THERE GOOD DANCERS ARE MADE

-Downing's School of Dancing, Old Orchard Parlors, 375 Dovercourt road. ners' class, commencing

Tues

NVESIOR'S OPPORTUNITY on a rea to Box 1020, Station C, Torento.

returns. Apply underground work and milling, for engagement. Box 99, World.

8 a.m. and 5 p.n.

S'x times daily, one Sunday, seven consecutive insertions, or one week's continuous advertising in Daily and Sunday World, 7 cents a word.

Properties for Sale.

Rooms and Board

COMFORTABLE Private Hotel; Ingle-wood, 295 Jarvis street; central, heat-ing; phone.

Poultry.

pcund; any kind; any size. I pay ex-press within 200 miles of Toronto. Samuel Lewis, 666A Dundas West, Piano Tuning.

A.—PIANO TUNERS are born, not made. Pilling was born. Paul H. Pilling, T. M. P. A. Junc. 8013.

Articles for Sale.

WHY LET MOTHER

USE THAT DUSTY, back-breaking Ash Sifter? Get her a Banner Ash Sifter. Eliminates work. Easy rocker mo-

Mother Will Appreciate

COAL TEN DOLLARS

Motor Cars.

SAVE MONEY

CAR NOW

HENS WANTED-Alive, 19 cents

SER 1 1919

noentrated book

nutrition, repair te vital functions, for all kinds of

to you want it.

SUBE

E?

Don't Lo

But res your grey an taded hairs their natur

color with

'S SULPHUR.

RESTORER

epening greyness to a few days, thus see appearance, has enal health to the Hair of the color. It clean akes the most perf med Hair Restorer great Hair Specialis Ltd., 12 Bedford Lab S.E., and can be obta and is VERYWHERE.

's Time is

aluable to health is seriously heavy washdays. is often needed for Important duties. It y to do the family home. Send it to ly attractive rates class of work. You

of a lot of worry

ods will always look w-We know how.

METHOD

L WHITE WAY

NE MAIN 7486.

UNDRY

Vashing!

01d 1 🕈

THE TORONTO WORLD

waiting to see the big flagpole blown either broken or removed, Flagpole Breaks.

eran and his wife, who was a most

 $6 PER FOOT, MIMCO, situated between New Toronto and Toronto, at stop 14 Mimico; electric cars to city; fare 6 tickets for 25c, by Grand Trunk to Union Station less than 6c; terms on each 50-foot lot, $10 down and $$ monthly. Open evenings. E. T. Stephens, Limited, 186 Victoria St.
 (Continued From Page 1.)
 as well as Simpson's. At the height of the gale it broke off some 20 feet from the ground. and all its upper rigging and top mast came with a crash to the ground. Lucklin, no one was pass-in the vicinity of the Oakville tower say the wind was of cyclone charac as well as Simpson's. At the height of the gale it broke off some 20 feet from the ground. and all its upper rigging and top mast came with a crash to the ground. Lucklin, no one was pass-in the vicinity of the Oakville tower so far recorded—except, of course, to the flagpdie.
 war, and the treasurer G.W.V.A., provincial com-mand, has been requested to act as treasurer and receive funds on be-the gale with a crash to the ground. Lucklin, no one was pass-in the vicinity of the Oakville tower so far recorded—except, of course, to the flagpdie.

SUFFERS HEAVIL

The structure of the struct lighting system i nthe city u pto 10 p.m., when the reserve cells became ex-hausted and all light was cut off. The of illumination. Candles were at a premium in all company, owing to the shortage of coal,

Lausted and all light was cut off. The company, owing to the shortage of coal, if how is the task of the city during Saturday is the state as the state plant to provide sevening, and, as the night davanced is the price. Some grocery stores were down to rock-boltom for not slow to take advantage of the storm's duration. If orce and conveyed visitors to the storm's duration. If orce and conveyed visitors to the storm's duration. At the Harbor. The harbor 'board offices suffered ight promes at the beach, the vest and north ends doing a thriving trade. If it had not been for this kind- to the wharf in front of the build game and women would have been complete and women would have been for the therbor offices and broke right or the take came to within ten feet the inkindly wind. The barbor complete and women would have been to files and suffer all the tortures of the take came to within ten feet the inkindly wind.
 Few people realize the real power of the stindet came to within a storme of the building were the boalts and iswamped them having a faulty joint were just reparted. The kent ad is storme for the whole damage done the hold damage done to the line may and more mould have been of the herbor offices and proke right or the storm. Seed had corus his return he storm is so the whole damage done to the building were the boalts and iswamped them to a syst received reports of all the form the take came to with an actuality. On Saturday is reparted. The whole damage done to the storm. The ball dings were the boalt at least or the storm is add the whole damage done to the stores. The solution and determine the storm is add the whole damage done to the stores at the damage done to the lines and poles. The ball dings were the store of the whole damage done to the lines and poles. The whow that at least one hundred is the red eliver as the different places to done whore different places to down any nort the lines and poles. The balla dis the red the down ange tha may is the consthe different wowe wind until actually brought face to face with an actuality. On Saturday night coping stones on high buildings were like footballs to the wind. Anyone of them having a faulty joint were just removed from their elevation and de-posited on the roadway. One huge block of cement was blown from the top of the Loraine apartments on Ontarid street and found a resting place right in the ceture of a Ford motor car standing outside the apartment house and laid it out as flat as a pantop of the Loraine apartments on On-

THAT BANNER ASH SIFTER, con-serves fuel, eliminates work. PER TON-Why waste? Use a Banner Ash Sifter. Eliminates work and dust BY BUYING YOUR USED

As Prices Are Advancing 1915 COLE, newly painted and in splendid condition. 1917 COLE, model 860, with cord tires, 1917 COLE, model 860, with cord tires, 1918 Cole, model 860, with cord tires, 1918 Cole, model 860, with cord tires, 1917 Cole, model 860, with cord tires, 1918 Co

TORONTO DISTRICT

down—but they didn't. The pole was a plaything to the wind, and bent and rocked dangerously. But it was a well-educated pole, and refused to be either broken or removed.

The city hall flagstaff did not behave as well as Simpson's. At the height of the gale it broke off some 20 feet from the ground, and all its upper rigging

Along Lake Front. The strong gale which, according to the statements of the officials at the damage was not so heavy. A few

Veteran's House Blown Down.

Candles were at a premium in all parts of the city during Saturday evening, and, as the night davanced. dier, at 35 Barker avenue, Woodbine them. Comrades of Reid residing in the vicinity lost no time in proffering assistance to the family. A commit-tee has been apponted to raise funds on behalf of the unfortunate vet. Street, clothing dealer, reported to the

As Prices Are Advancing 1915 COLE, newly painted and in splendid 1917 COLE, model 860, with cord tires, combition 1917 COLE, model 860, with cord tires, ning order. FORD DELIVERY car. This car has bargain at $350. REPUBLIC Cord Cord tires of construction for Mrs. T. W. REPUBLIC 100 Cord thas tores of the valley and up towas all day ver the big poles that carms the word the valley and up towas caross t the damage more than $5. Frame Buildings Destroyed. Chose to $50,000 damage was caused by frame buildings being blown down between York street and Spadina over and trees in the vicinity completely uprooted. Cedars and two and three feet in thickness avenue on the waterfront. The build-ing owned by the Ganadian Beaver Machine and Construction Company, and pines ing owned by the Qanadian Beaver Machine and Construction Company, foot of York street, was blown over into the bay with a loss estimated by the police at $25,000. Fifteen thousand damage was to the building and $10,000 to valuable racing motor boats which were destroyed. The Queen City Yacht Club was storm swept and the damage was re-ported to be $2,500. The Argonaut Club querters was badly battered and the damage to the oarsmen's quarters was estimated at $1,000. were

Store Windows Crashed in

A five-ton loaded motor truck was blown off the highway into the ditch with the force of the wind near Oak-ville and also a large McLaughan touring car. Along the railroad tracks The police did not attempt to record Freight cars stand unroofed. The first G.T.R. train to leave Brantford for Toronto left at six o'clock Sunday

The ford looked more like a gartment of a Ford motor inglit in the company were able to responsed to the same apoonted to the infortunate very looked more like a gartment of a Ford boxed more like a gartment of the ford looked more like as a part of the company were able to responsed to the look as the same way. The damage throut it is not serious. A look of the same way for the man line serious. A look of the same way for the damage is none and look and way is the same way for the damage is none. Both the Hamilton and North as the same way. The damage throut the party blown of the same way. The damage throut the same way. The damage to the company were able to province has been rear to flope with a same and the northwest distance, a same way. The damage throut the same way for the damage to the company were able to province has been rear to flope with a same and the local trouble was reported to the company were able to the company were able to province has been rear to flope with a same and through and known in the same way. The damage throut the same way for the

as was Tom Barber's barn at Wex-ford. C. McMichel's driving house on Earlscourt and the northwest dis-

n part of York townsh evening. In Brantford, among other diamages, a mine-inch brick wall was demolished. The only thru service between Sunnyside and Oakville, which continu uninterrupted, was the Auto Transit Company's buses. At Unionville. T. O. Harding, of Unionville, and the members of his family had a narrow escape on Saturday night from serious injuries during the terrific wind storm, which passed over the coun-try during the early hours of the evening. Mr. Harding, accompanied by Mrs. Harding, Mrs. Richard Ash, a daughter, and Miss Ada Huitcheson was returning from the bazaar held in St. Phillip's Anglican Church at the north end of the town, and in addition a couple of large hog pens were demolished. In many parts listricts, a great deal of damage was done to the wires and communication greatly interrupted. On the Don Milis road 25 poles belonging to the Montreal telephone division of the service

At Hagerman's Corners, on the 6th concession of Markham, the big driv-

ng house of the old Bee Hive Hotel was completely wrecked and the debris scattered for some distance. A drivng horse stabled there, and owned by orna-

blown off.

Fred Hemingway, was, however, un-mental and fruit, were in some cases literally blown up by the roots or twisted off at the trunk. One man had nearly all his beehives blown over, and some of them will be a total loss. This is said to have been the

Around Mimico

injured. Hundreds of trees.

case in several instances.

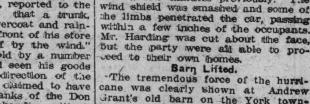

At Markham.

of the county, notably in the nor were blown down.

PAGE ELEVEN

1

MAKE APPOINTMENT BY

TELEPHONE. MAIN 5308.

CARCARCAL CAL

sign makers were busy all day removing damaged signs. Exhibition Suffers.

to the extent of quite $20,000. The manufacturers' building is the worst damaged of all the buildings, the dome in the centre being very badly wrecked. All the stained glass has been blown out, and there is hardly a glass window in the building left. The Midway has suffered badly, all the all standard makes on hand; cars bought; exchanges made: liberal terms or cash; tires, tubes at cut-rate prices; open evenings. Frank Barton, Limited, tary in the Exhibition grounds has shows belonging to the Exhibition also been damaged. The seawall, however, stood well, and not a hole could be found in it vesterday.

Scarboro Tower Leveled. Another exhibition-Scarboro Beach -is also injured. The large electric tower was leveled to the ground, and /E SHIP C. O. D. anywhere in Canada. the grand stand in the recreation field partially blown down.

The theatres and picture shows also suffered severely by the action of the storm on the electric light plants. At Loew's, for instance, the power went The officials, however, lanterns.

quickly lighted some gas brackets on the stage-some with burners and some without. This enabled the vaudeville portion of the program to be completed, but when the performers went a little way back on the stage the audience could not see them. found their way out by the light of candles and storm lanterns.

quickly put out of business when the The motor top of Victor Sharkey's nuickly put out of business when the aid of an emergency outfit.

The result of the theatres, the pictied up was to crowd Yonge street with people. It was something like a Belt Line car at rush hours - very head and hands. much overcrowded. To persuade people to go indoors when danger lurks overhead was found impossible in England when the Huns staged an air raid, and so it was with Toronto people on Saturday night-they were out to see the wind do its worst. Thouhave gone down several times and Sat-urday night was no exception. Abou-thirty poles from Theoreliffe Farm gate up the hill went down with a crash, one following theopther in rapid The Exhibition has suffered damage succession, the big poles snapping like matches into three or more pieces, the roadway being filled with poles, cross ly destroyed. The new garage on the bars and wires for over half a mile. The falling poles and wires broke the power wires of the Hydro-Electric line in three places and cut off the lights in all the farm homes up to The local farm telephone Duncan. line also suffered.

A lot of motor cars and farmers rigs were unable to go up the Don road and had to return to get north by age was done in the Todmorden dis-Scarboro or Yonge street. Two men trict. The veranda surrounding Dr. on a motorcycle ran into one of the They sustained injuries and Mills road was stripped. poles. damages their vehicles Everything solid brick east wall of the new was in darkness. 10 no Located the Trouble

The Bell Co. located the trouble in the forenoon and in the afternoon the, had a big staff of man and metors of into the ravine and the root was com-

had a big staff of men and motors at work and cleared the read of the destrung a cable of twenty-five pairs of wires along the break and then coupled way thru being shown. For some moments the house was in darkness. except for the light from a few storm lanterns. The official police, but a number of people struck The Hydro will mend their breaks his morning. diately this morning.

The Toronto Power Co. runs a big- and went on home. George Dawson, poled line from Bayview avenue down aged 32, of 709 Ontario street, was into the Don Valley and up to East struck by a falling tree a short dislittle way back on the stage the audi-ence could not see them. At the conclusion of the show, the audience found their way out by the light of linemen and emergency trucks had the current restored early in the after-noon. Probably mor wires went down Saturday night. He was unconstinue ments to the denser of some pave-light failed, but some of the larger car probably saved him from being uses managed to carry on with the seriously injured at 8.45 Saturday night, when the roof of a house at 740 Manning avenue was blown down. ture shows and the car service being Part of the roof crashed down on the top of the car, breaking the windshield and injuring Sharkey about the Sharkey was taken to his home at 73 Yarmouth avenue. Contradictory Versions.

Among the incidents of the great storm was the flooding of the cellars of residents in the vicinity of an auxiliary plant of the city sewage department at the Beach. It was stated by residents there yesterday that many sands upon thousands of them stood of the cellars were so badly flooded in the vicinity of Simpson's store, that furnaces were put out of com-mission. An angry deputation is said to have gone over to the chief engineer of this department and demand. ed why the sewage was allowed to night and early Sunday morning takaccumulate and make such a mess of things generally.

Irving Nevitt, chief engineer at the danger of falling onto the street. Some across the fence, partially breaking it. Morley avenue sewage disposal plant, large signs were repaired by the firestates that nothing was amiss at his plant, and that he had not been apmatter. The only proached in the morning. Electric signs on all of the the unprecedented storm and absence plant which could be called an auxillary was in another section than that governed by him, and was practically on the roadways. at the Beach, which was continually At several places police reserves were placed on duty to warn people flooded because of the high waves of of the danger of walls collaps the lake during storms. Factory Chimney Down Twenty signs were removed from

In Mimico, the roof of the Ontario buildings on Yonge street by firemen. Sewer Pipe Company's factory was blown off, causing a loss of from $3000 A large searchlight was placed on the motor ilton radial blew out and over five were warning callers of outside places to $4000, and two houses under construction were also blown off. The power went off on Saturday and was not on again until yesterday after-Trees were blown down and windows smashed in with the force of the gale. In the Humber vicinity,

Park was blown down and severa and storekeepers, and when the storm trees uprooted. The Woodbine race track grand-The hours before proceeding home.

One Man Killed.

Firemen Repair Signs.

was at its height the lighting system broke down and plunged the district in stand was partly demolished and the complete darkness. The hitherto gates and brick pillars and hoarding brightly-lighted shops on the main blown down. McKelvin's big electric avenue, St. Clair, were suddenly changed to darkness, making a dissign on Kingston road was completetinct contrast to this well-lighted and northeast corner of Lumsden and Woodbine avenues was blown popular thorofare. The few shoppers who ventured out made their way with down, as also was . W. McKay's exdifficulty to the stores that quickly tensive piggery on Salmon avenue. The piggery housed 200 pigs. In the Woodbine Heights and Danforth Park substituted candles as a temporary measure. One or two stores whose equipment included gas did the bulk sections fences, billboards and trees of the business, as the candles proved were blown down and scattered in all directions. Comparatively little damto be a sorry substitute for the bril. liant electric light, and the lighting was not restored until midnight. The wind was freakish and seemed R. H. Fleming's residence on Don to take the most fiendish delight in disrupting everything that came in its In the Oakwood district the large way. It took with it anything that happened to be insecure, such as automobile tops, hats and caps from men, women and children; umbrellas, which it kindly turned inside out, and packpletely lifted from the new residence ages but too lightly held by Earlsoccupied by J. Brant, Hope avenue. court shoppers. And these, with many Considerable damage was done in all the towns and villages and sur-rounding districts of the county. In other odds and ends. found their way on to the car tracks, where they lay Mimico the roof of the Ontario Sewer Pipe Co.'s factory was blown off, causing a loss of from *3 000 to $4 000. until the cars came crashing into them, thus completing their destruc. tion. The power went off on Saturday even-

The small-sized store signs suffered ng about seven o'clock and was not most, and many came to grief, but all on again until yesterday afternoon. Trees and fences were blown down, the electric signs seemed to weather the storm, altho it was risky to wall shingles torn from roofs, windows smashed in and small sheds and under them, for at any moment they the sidewalk. might be hurled to shacks demolished, and the roofs Wooden hoardings and fences placed two houses under construction were around buildings in process of conlifted completely off. In the Humber vicinity damage was Movies Out of Business. The majority of picture houses who vere not on the Hydro System were uickly put out of business when the Uickly put out of business when the Uickly put out of business when the Not so heavy. A few bathing houses Saturday night. He was unconscious Manu were soon littering the pave-ments to the danger of passers-by. In the Oakwood block, east of Duffering the wind smashed two new plate glass The motor top of Victor Sharkey's The motor top of Victor Sharkey's Manu were soon littering the pave-ments to the danger of passers-by. In the Oakwood block, east of Duffering the wind smashed two new plate glass Saturday night. He was at 8.30 Manu were soon littering the pave-ments to the danger of passers-by. In the oakwood block, east of Duffering the wind smashed two new plate glass Saturday night. He was unconscious the oakwood block, east of Duffering the wind smashed two new plate glass Saturday night. He was at 8.30 the oakwood block, east of Duffering the windows and picked are the highway the struck by an electric size which fail from the Adams furniture building, Queen and James streets, was renroad and sidewalks and all day yes distance away. At the corner of Hope terday men were busy clearing the dered unconscious and rushed to St. and Earlscourt avenues, the entire Michael's Hospital in a passing motor shingle roof of a house was carried road for motorists to pass.

In Islington, as in other places, the power went off on Saturday, and was dislocated and she was injured about exposing the occupants of the house, not on again until yesterday. A shack Mr. and Mrs. Gay and family, to the that had been erected by a family as Soo Choo, 956 West Queen street, full energy of the storm. With chara temporary residence, was completely demolished and a lot of small buildvas rendered unconscious when an acteristic promptitude, workmen seelectric sign in front of Bolton broth- cured the necessary roofing materiings were blown down. Trees, winrs' store, 193 West Queen street, came als the same night, and on Sunday

dows and fences were the main vic-tims of the storm here, as elsewhere. down on him. Choo was attended by morning were already putting on doctor and taken to his home. Other new roof. Hundreds of shingles. Weston Gets Off Lightly. Weston seems to have got off as people struck by bricks blown from blown from the roofs of frame houses. he tops of buildings and houses, took were to be seen on many of the streets

L. D. Barnett's establishment blown in and shingles torn from roofs brick in all parts of the town. Trees were the morgue today and an inquest held. chimney was broken off by the fierce blown across the Dundas road as far wind and the wooden building in the as Dixie.

Firemen worked nearly all Saturday rear used as a Sunday school slightly Markham seems to have suffered the damaged. The big notice board of the most damage. The gable ends of two brick stables were blown away and the edge of buildings and were in Boon and Ascot, was uprooted, falling the walls of the old, unused mill of the Ontario Yarn Co. were blown The church sign of the Boon Avenue down. The Yarn Co.'s storehouse. 41fighters so they would hold safely Baptist Church was removed in time rectly across the road, also suffered, until repair men look after them this to save it from destruction. Owing to the wind making a huge gap in the the wind making a huge gap in the all. The agricultural building was down town buildings were damaged of light, many of the public meetings more than half destroyed and several and in many instances blown down scheduled for Saturday night had to windmills in the vicinity were blown down. The hotel bus, while going to the station, was overturned by the force of the wind and the driver and two passengers were thrown into the

the Oakville district. The generator of Telephone lines thruout the county Yonge and Queen streets to throw light the Hamilton and Oakville radial radial

In spite of the damage done to on the tops of the buildings so that way, the tracks are strewn with poles the firemen could carry on their work. and trees bodily uprooted. buildings and trees all over the county Firemen in the outside sections were kept busy answering calls. Sil still water until 6 p.m. Sunday-practically as a result of the storm in points out-alarms were responded to in less 24 hours-owing to the electric pump side Toronto.

OAKVILLE SUFFERS.

down signs which were swept to Central Methodist Church. corner of

be abandoned.

Extensive damage is reported from road.

