GEORGE S. LYON KEEPS THE ABERDEEN CUP

Wins the Amateur Championship Burns Beats Wagner in Singles and Third Time in Succession, Defeating Fritz Martin 3 and 2.

For twelve years has the Aberdeen up and 2 to play, thus winning the cup

Lyon is the first to win this cup. The first 18 holes was played in the morning, Lyon being 4 up, but in the afternoon, followed by a large gallery, a battle royal resulted, and just here the chan let it be remarked, that while The World is glad to see Mr. Lyon become the first holder of the cup, yet in his game yesterday, while he won three and two, everything broke well for

Too much cannot be said of Fritz Martin's play. Altho four down in the went out in the afternoon, and after halving the first three holes won the fourth and fifth, reducing Lyon's lead to two. Lyon won the 6th, halving the 7th, but winning the eighth in the remarkable score of two two less than bogey. Martin won the ninth and tenth, but Lyon came back in the eleventh, winning the hole Martin won the twelfth, halving the sixteenth and annexing the fourteenth. With Lyon one up in the fifteenth, the champion got away badly, but made a splendid recovery with his mid-iron, while Martin, who made a fine drive, got into trouble at the punch bowl, and as Lyon won this hole and the next, the game was over with Lyon, 3 up -Morning-
