IN WARD TWO.

AIDERMANIC CANDIDATES NOW OUT BY THE SCORE.

Nominations Took Place Last Night in the Six Wards of the City and Each Ward Promises a Keen Fight-Who Are in the Race for Aldermen and School Trustees.

The civic woods are full of aldermanic candidates to-day. It is seldom that such a crop has been grown in Toronto. The meetings in the six wards of the city, where the pominations took place last night were all largely attended. The ratepayers of Toronto have become worked-up on municipal affairs, and the fight for seats in the Council next year promises to be a record-breaker in every ward. Following is a summary of the candidates:

For Aldermen.

Ward 1—W. T. Stewert, James Frame, F. K. Richardson, John Eussell, J. K. Leslie, George Chesman, Louis Brown, Edward Milliam Thompson, Daniel Lamb, Thomas Froster, Charles Caldwell, Joseph J. so till the position became purely honorary.

He put a question right by declaring his position on Chief Graham's dismissal. He considered the dismissal the most damnable thing ever perpetrated in the city. It was the act of a hyena.

He had voted to reduce water rates—but it would be best to put all water rates into taxation. [Applause.]

The tunnel scheme for sewage was expensive. It was best to find out the proper way, then he would advocate it.

He pronounced the street railway agreement a bad one. The franchise should have been kept by the city, and it would have paid the city's debts.

He reviewed his six years' stewardship and was cheered.

Other Speeches. Other Speeches,

Bernard Saunders gave a short account of his work as an alderman, and with full confidence in having done his duty, would face the polls.

There were no other speakers. T. L. Church retired during the meeting. The meeting broke up in an orderly manner, but John F. Loudon was certainly among bit friends.

BY-LAW AUTHORIZING ISSUE.

"That the Directors of this Company are hereby authorized to issue Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000) of the Capital Stock of this Company as referred stock, the same to be preferred as to Capital and as to dividends. which dividends are restricted to 7 per cent. per annum, payable semiannually, which dividends shall be cumulative, that is to say, that if in any given year the profits are not sufficient to pay said dividends, the same shall be made up in the following year (or other years) when the Company shall have earned such dividends, but the holders of such prefered stock shall not be entitled to participate in any surplus of profits of the said Company over and above such seven per cent. dividend.

The preferred stock of the Company shall be limited to the present authorized issue of Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000), and shall not be issued at less than par, and only for cash.

A dividend at the rate of 7 per cent. per annum was declared for the first six months the Company has been in operation, ending Oct. 31st, 1899.

As only $3500 is required to pay the dividend on the preferred stock, nd as it is a first charge on the profits of the entire business, the investment

The makers of these shoes so far control the situation as to absolutely egulate the price and profit at which their shoes shall be sold by the retailer, and they themselves also secure an absolutely uniform wholesale price, even from wholesale firms who have retail stores of their own, regardless of ow large the quantity purchased may be.

It has taken money and brains and expert knowledge of the shoe manuacturing business to build up the reputation now held by Slater Shoes.

Only dealers financially responsible are allowed to handle "The Slater The terms of the contract prevent price cutting.

The cost of advertising and selling "The Slater Shoe" is no more than the cost of selling ordinary shoes, while the advertising has already become a valuable asset, by establishing the brand and popularizing it with shoe

The Molsons Bank, of Montreal, were for many years the bankers of Geo. T. Slater & Son's business, and are the bankers of the present Company. Their name is now given as a reference by permission. They will substantiate the claim that customers' paper offered by the Company for discount is of the best character and very high average rating.
