LET THEM TELL

Editor World: In reading carefully the discussion in your issue of today, I think that it would be very nice to have the correct reports of the price of eggs, but the figures in the packing houses are distributed over the country. It is going to be very hard to do so. Now I think it would be nice if you would also get the packers to come along and tell you just what you can kill, cure and ship for, so they can also make a living with the drover, then we farmers would be getting what is coming to us. I think that this should be published. Now, boys, come up to the little school-master. A Farmer. March 18.

Elopes With Pupil.

Des Moines, Iowa, March 18.—It became known to-day that a nun, Sister Annette, had stolen away from the home of the most superior at Cedar Rapids, and accompanied Harold Stevenson to Chicago, where they were married. Sister Annette is a music teacher and until lately was stationed at Burlington, where she taught pupils of both sexes until late at night. She fell in love with Stevenson, one of her pupils, and when she was transferred to Cedar Rapids the elopement was decided upon.

Gov't's Ambition.

Denver, March 18.—While visiting Glenwood Springs recently, George J. Glend said: "From this place I can view the promised land, also my own road. Here I shall build a country home which will dwarf in comparison that of Mr. Vanderbilt at Asheville and my own unpretentious house at Lakewood, N.J."

CONSUMPTION CURED.

An old physician, who had practiced his art for many years, had discovered the formula of a simple vegetable remedy for the cure of consumption, bronchitis, catarrh, asthma and all throat and lung affections. Also a positive and reliable cure for nervous debility and all nervous complaints. Having tested the wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, and being desirous to relieve human suffering, he will send free of charge to all who wish it, a free copy of his book, "The Cure of Consumption, Bronchitis, Catarrh, Asthma and All Throat and Lung Affections." Sent by mail, by addressing with postage, naming this paper, W. A. Murray, 317 Powers' Block, Rochester, N.Y.

Broken Jewels

YOUR watch may run if a jewel is cracked or broken, and it may keep fairly good time. The pivot revolving in such a jewel, however, soon cuts and frequently breaks, thus increasing the damage and cost of repairing. If your watch is varying, it will pay you to have it examined by one of our experts. Repairs sent in by mail will have our personal attention.
