The above list of donations, it will be observed, includes no additions to the Museum. This, there can be little doubt, is mainly ascribable to the want of any adequate means for the classification or display of the objects acquired for this purpose; and it is with sincere satisfaction that the Council anticipate the speedy possession by the Institute of a Hall for its Museum, wherein may be accumulated illustrations of every branch of science, and of the historical antiquities and ethnological relics specially pertaining to the aboriginal races of Canada and the New World.

The following papers have been read at the ordinary meetings of the Institute, during the session 1854-5 :—
