OF INTEREST TO UNIONS

Company Can Collect Fees in Payment of a Claim.

Toronto, June 5-An order of interest to all labor organizations was made this morning by Chief Justice Falconbridge. It is in favor of the Metallic Roofing Company, of Canada, in an action against Local Union, No. 50, Amalgamated Sheet and Metal Workers International Association. The order appoints the company without security or salary, till June 30 next, receivers to the amount of their claim of all moneys, tolls or fees which are now payable or may hereafter be payable to Local Union, No. 30, or their officers or agents, or members who may act on their behalf. The company some time ago got judgment against the union for damages, and also an injunction preventing picketing, and the order virtually allows it to collect its damages in the way indicated.
