AWFUL SKIN HUMOR CURED BY CUTICURA

A MOTHER'S SWORN STATEMENT

My little daughter May's head and face broke out in one solid mass of bleeding sores, and one of her ears was so affected, that the doctor thought that it would drop off. Her suffering was intense, getting no rest at all, unless under the influence of opiates. The physician tried every known remedy, but instead of getting better, they seemed to get worse all the time. Distressed with her condition, I was advised to try CUTICURA REMEDY. I administered CUTICURA RESOLVING inwardly. I bathed her with CUTICURA SOAP, and used CUTICURA Ointment freely. Before the first week I noticed that the little sufferer was beginning to get better. In less than two months my little darling was entirely cured and well, she got as fat as a little pig, and no marks whatever to be seen from the effects of Mrs. JAS. NELTON, 11 Hayden St., Atlanta, Ga. Oct. 29, 1897.

AMUSEMENTS

Vaudeville at the Grand Next Week—Excellent List of Specialty Performers.

When the American theaters introduced the continuous vaudeville performances some few years ago, doubts were expressed whether the venture would be a success. The vaudeville act is now, however, the best drawing class of amusement in many of the best theaters in the States. Many of the best performers in their line have drifted into vaudeville, until now many a star who traveled with a company is now in the service of vaudeville. Manager Roote, knowing the success of vaudeville, has engaged a long list of specialty performers for a week's engagement at the Grand. The prices have been placed at 15, 25 and 35 cents. Two matinees will be given—Thursday (Thanksgiving Day) and Saturday. The following is the list of performers: The Empire Trio, Young, Adams and Young; refined descriptive, character and song singers. Daisy Perterkin, the up-to-date acrobatic and character dancer. The La Dells, Harry and Annie, in retributing new pens, similar to those stolen. The lads were arrested, and admitted having broken the glass in the office window, pulled out the nails from the sash, and got in through the windows. The value of the goods stolen amounts to about $10. The boys will be brought before Magistrate Parke in a few days. One of them is the son of a Dundas street merchant.
