

St. Yves Winner :: Base Ball :: Toronto's Play To-day :: Lacrosse Game in England

Note and Comment

Henri St. Yves, the winner of the Derby, captured the Scotch Marathon last New Year's Day over the heavy roads from Falkirk to Edinburgh in time close to 2 hours and 40 minutes, the distance being the full 26 miles, 385 yards. Bob Hannan, the veteran champion of Scotland and holder of the records in that country, ran like a winner at the seventh mile. He was being congratulated by his friends up but the same little Frenchman, who shot past like a streak, leaving Hannan dumfounded, and Hannan thought it time to drop out—which he did.

Last week Hannan wrote his friend Johnny Lees of Toronto his impression of St. Yves, with the result that the Toronto Scotman cleaned up nicely as good as 7 to 1. Hannan stated in his letter that no matter how good was Longboat, Scotland, from the rest of them, it was a cinch for the Frenchman, and so it proved.

The general opinion is that St. Yves is the legitimate Marathon champion and is every bit as good as the best sports sent out by his press agents, but his speed was generally given last on the list. For instance, on Friday morning one New York paper declared that this is the way the contest should shape up:

"If Longboat will run as he can run, there will be nothing to it but the Indian. If Shrubbs won't take a cramp like he did in the Garden recently the first prize will be the Englishman's. If Dorando can show the speed he showed in his last race against Hayes he will just found in."

"If Hayes will repeat the plucky run he showed in the two outdoor Marathons he has won he will lead the field."

"If Matt Maloney won't go to sleep he may again prove himself to be a real wonder in the distance running line."

"If St. Yves lives up to the reputation his press agents have sent broadcast he should be paid the race at all."

In truth, the pickers were worse than race track touts and the wisest followers of long distance running left it alone.

The fast time vouches for the squareness of the race. The growers will declare that Shrubbs earned more by losing, while Shrubbs Marathon followers hardly think that Longboat Shrubbs or Dorando could ever beat St. Yves in a 26 mile race at his best. The following is a comparison of time made in outdoor and indoor Marathons the past year:

Name	Place	Best Time
Thomas Longboat, Garden	2:45.05-2-5
Dorando Pietri, Garden	2:44.00-2-5
John Hayes, Garden	2:44.00-1-5
Maloney, Garden	2:44.00-1-5
Henri St. Yves, London	2:31.23-2-5
Henri St. Yves, N.Y.	2:40.50-2-5

St. Yves made his 2:31.23 over Olympic Marathon course in special time.

Hayes' time in Olympic Marathon was 2:56.15-2-5.

James Bell, owner of the Arena Rink in Winnipeg, and manager of the March, arrived in Toronto last night looking for a Marathon engagement for his man. He claims that it's hard to break into the combination, even though March has a victory over Shrubbs to his credit. Mr. Bell states that Buffalo is arranging for a Marathon and he hopes to get March into it.
