Few Persons Outside of Those Connected With the Estate Admitted to Any Participation or Sight of the Obsequies.

ARDEN, N.Y., Sept. 12.-Thru the quiet aisles of the Ramapo Woods, the body of Edward H. Harriman was carried to-day from the great house he never lived to see finished and laid in its resting place on the Arden hillside. The rulers of Wall Street came from New York to pay their last ribute, but the most prominent part in the funeral ceremonies was taken by the men who knew him best as a country squire, master of the great estate which covers 43,000 acres of hill and valley in this, the most rugged part of Orange County.

His general superintendent, his master carpenter, his master mason and the managers and assistant managers of his dairies, his farms, and his trotting stables, were the men who bore his coffin, and the services were led by his own chaplain.

The funeral was private and only its resting place on the Arden hillside.

The funeral was private and only friends of the family who had received invitations from Mrs. Harriman were admitted. Those present included: Hon, B. B. Odell, Jr., and wife; Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Perkins, Maxwell Evarts, Jas. Stillman, Jacob H. Echiff, F. D. Underwood, W. V. S. Thorne and Robert S. Lovett.

The first service was holy communion celebrated at 10 a.m. by the Rev. J. Holmes McGuinness for Mrs. Harriman and children at their home on Tower Hill.

At 11 o'clock came a public memorial service at St. John's Church for the em ployes of the estate and parishioners of the church. The Harriman fam-ily pews were left vacant.

Guarded by Police.

Elaborate precautions were taken to preserve the privacy of the afternoon service. Several scores of employes, aided by a number of uniformed police aided by a number of uniformed police from Tuxedo, guarded all roads over which the funeral procession passed from the house to the church and kept watch at intervals of twenty yards around the patch of woods, which includes the Harriman burial plot.

Eight carriages followed the hearse from Arden House. The first, a large station wagon, carried Mrs. Harriman since the family came to Arden 22 years ago. These were given seats in the church nearer their dead master's coffin than any of the millionaires and captains of industry from New York.

NIAGARA FALLS, N.X., Sept. 12.-For thirteen hours, George Felz and Harry Porter with two companions, were margoned in a small launch on so from the point where the river breaks into the turbulent upper rapids. The boat went aground about 7 til 8 o'clock this morning that it was cold and fright, taken off. The absence of a wind was all that saved the boat, and its four passengers from being swept over the falls. Just off the spot where the boat grounded the water is deep and the current very swift. There was a dense fog over the river all night, and even if the launch had lifted off the reef, the men would have been in a worsa plight than before, for it would have been a hard matter to make shore with the lights obscured and a margin of only a quarter of a mile between them and the rapids. All thru the night the men kept calling for help, but their voices failed to reach any ear along the shore. When John W. Broderick, a river-the craft off the men were in a state Several years ago the Ella H. went aground on the same reef and pounded to pieces.

A Real Optimist (From the Philadelphia Inquirer.) At last we have an answer old question. "What is an optimist? An optimist is one who believes everything said by both Cook and
