THE BIRTH OF A NATION."

In deference to the many requests that have been received at the Alexandra Theatre during the past months for a return of that greatest of all pic-tures, "The Birth of a Nation," Man-ager Solman has booked for next week only D. W. Griffith's greatest spectacle. During the return engagements all over the United States and Canada the lobbies of the theatres have been thronged during the entire day by those who were eager to purchase seats. "The Birth of a Nation" is the marvel of theatrical managers all over the country. The musical score was prepared by Joseph Carl Breil, and played by a symphony orchestra of thirty is of great value in a dramatic way. As for the cast it can be easily said that the superior is not to be found in any other production. Is it any wonder then that "The Birth of any wonder then the spech-making in the As for the cast it can be easily a Nation" is epoch-making in the world of the theatre? For the enbe given daily. The sale of seats s this morning.
