COBOURG AMERICANS SUBSCRIBING FOR "HOSPITAL SHIP" AT ORCHARD BEACH

Visitors at Lake Shore Resort Deeply Interested in the War—Social Happenings.

COBOURG, Aug. 15.—The one absorbing topic of conversation, of course, is the "war," and the whole town was excited on Thursday by the departure of the local battery. The Americans were the first to display the Union Jack on their carriages and automobiles and by their enthusiasm to show their interest.

It has surprised many that the division of the "Hospital Ship" has not abandoned it. Several people have given up their boxes, preferring to contribute the amount for the purchase of the ship.

Mrs. Darcy Kay, looking extremely well, has returned from New York with her baby daughter.

Miss Katharine Cornell has returned from her camping expedition to Muskoka and is visiting her aunt, Miss Cornell. Mr. Jack Chamberlain of Buffalo also visited Miss Cornell over the week-end.

Miss Beatrice Donnelly has arrived from Chicago.

Mr. George Vennard was suddenly summoned to return to Chicago. He is in charge of the important branch of Armour & Co. plant, which manufactures fertilizer, and the war has shut off the polish supply, which comes from Germany and which is so needed in the production of fertilizers.

Admiral R. M. Berry, U.S.N. (retired) and Mrs. Berry, spent a week with Mrs. C. W. F. on Monday and again on Tuesday at twelve o'clock Miss Poe had a cocktail party in her honor. On Thursday Mrs. Hermann Berry gave a bridge party for Mrs. Berry and on Friday evening Mrs. Henry Fitzhugh gave a delightful dinner. On Tuesday Mrs. Rowe took a party of guests to White Lake for an entrance ride on her yacht. They all dined with Miss Poe at the W. H. House.
