STORY OF A GIRL WHO REFUSED TO MARRY FOR HER BEAUTY
IMPERIAL THEATRE!

Beautiful Edna Goodrich in

"THE HOUSE OF LIES"

Morocco-Paramount Production

HOW MANY GIRLS ARE THERE IN THE WORLD who would refuse to marry a man of means—in other words a good catch—if her personal charms were the influencing factor? Such was the mind of our heroine in today's strangely fascinating romance. It was a stepmother's scheme to recoup her waning finances but the honorable girl dissented. How the plan worked is delectable entertainment with innumerable social events, delightful Californian out-of-doors, pageantry productions with idyllic dances and a dash of melodrama here and there to give the film novel its dash and point.

Haughton Warns Candidates

Coach Percy D. Haughton of the Harvard football team on Friday night sent a personal letter to all candidates for next year's eleven, urging them to keep up in their studies as a part of their football duties.

"This year's defeat," he wrote, "can be traced back to slackness in study between the time of last year's game and mid-year, when men whose presence on the team would have probably turned the scale, got on probation at the college office, their services being finally lost to the team."

Violated Rule by Taking Part in Exhibition Games Following Close of Season

Cincinnati, Ohio, Dec. 9.—Fines by the National Baseball Commission here on major league ball players who have taken part in various exhibition games, following the close of the season of 1916.

Fifty-one players from thirteen of the sixteen major league teams were fined, amounts ranging from $25 to $100. However, the commission was lenient to an extent and suspended the fines of thirty-eight players, allowing only thirteen to stand. The men who must pay are: players Henriksen, Janviri, Shorten, Hoblitzel, Lewis, Scott, Cady, Ruth and Barry, of the world's champion Boston American League team; players Cobb and Young of the Detroit Americans, and player Davis of the Philadelphia Athletics. All of these were fined $100 except Cobb, who must pay $50.

The fines on the Boston Americans came as the result of a game played at New Haven in violation of the rule against members of the world's champions playing in games after the close of the season. Barry did not play, but managed the team that did play.

Davis was fined as the manager of a team which played in various eastern cities, but the fines of the remainder of the team were suspended because it was brought out in the testimony that Davis had assured his team-mates that he had the word of President Johnson, of the American League, that there would be no official objection to the team playing.
