CLEAN-UP WEEK IN MAINE, MAY 3 TO 8—Augusta, April 30—Gov. Curtis has issued a proclamation designating the first week in May as Clean Up and Paint Up Week. The proclamation is as follows: Whereas, there is in progress a national movement which has for its object the improvement of appearance and safeguarding of public health of cities and towns, and Whereas, the first week of May has been generally set for this work throughout the nation, and I therefore urge that the people of Maine take an active interest in advancing this movement and devote as much time as possible in the week of May 3 to 8 to cleaning and renovating their houses, places of business and yards appurtenant thereto, as well as alleys and vacant lots which may be in any part under their control. Co-operation in the observance of this will make for better health, greater security from fire danger and improved living and working conditions for all and must prove of great economic value. The idea of "Clean up and paint up" week is therefore commended to the attention of all good citizens.

"Why do you spend so much care on the crease of your slacks, hey? It is important, dad, not to wear baggy trousers. 'Important' is it? Why, yes, young cub, look here. Did you ever see a statue to a man who didn't wear baggy trousers?"
