WAVE WHITE FAVORS ALDERMANIC PLAN

WOULD INCLUDE OUTLYING AREAS IN CITY LIMITS

His Worship Believes Overhead Could Thus Be Reduced

GIVES REASONS

Proposes Civic Power Board be Abolished and Work Done by City

"WE SHOULD go back to the aldermanic form of civic government, with the aldermen elected by the ward they represent, and not put up any longer with an experiment from the United States which had its birth in the south, where conditions are altogether different," said His Worship Mayor White this morning when discussing civic matters.

"I would like to be in absolute charge of civic affairs for about a week and in that time I would put into effect changes which I believe would be for the best interest of the citizens and they would see to it that they had been in operation for a short time."

EXTEND BOUNDARIES

"I would extend the boundaries of the city to take in Beauséjour, Fairville and East Saint John and cut loose from the parishes altogether; have one civic administration; appoint executive officers, thus cutting down the overhead expenses. All the money expended I would have paid out through the City Chamberlain, including that for schools. I believe it would be good business to deal with all the separate boards which now handle civic work and centre the administration in the civic departments. I would also abolish the Civic Power Commission and place the lighting under the department of public safety where the people would realize it is what theirs and patronize it."

DENIES "LOG ROLLING"

In support of his proposition for a return to the aldermanic system His Worship said: "I was a member of the Common Council when the members were elected by the wards which they represented and I wish to state most emphatically that the charge of 'log rolling' made against it was not true. Under the old system the aldermen were able to give the necessary time to look over the best of the whole but under the present system with each man his own ward, a big department has not the time to study questions affecting the welfare of the city as a whole."

N. B. TUNGSTEN MINE REMAINS INACTIVE

No Prospect of Operations While Market Price Stays so Low

Special to The Times-Star

FREDERICTON, Oct. 9.—No prospect for the Tungsten Mine at Burnt Hill being operated until the world price of tungsten improves is held out by L. H. Timmins, Jr., of Montreal who is in Fredericton with friends to hunt big game in the vicinity of Burnt Hill. Mr. Timmins superintended the operation of the tungsten mine during the years of the great war, the wolframite which was mined being used for the production of tungsten which blended with steel to form the tiner tubes of British and allied naval guns.

PRICE DROPS

Even while the Timmins interests were operating at Burnt Hill the price of the metal began to drop and today is away below the figure which would make it profitable to operate at Burnt Hill.

That locality although producing a rich ore is far distant from rail transportation and could be reached readily only by expensive road construction. Concerning general business conditions in Canada Mr. Timmins says that improvement is on the way and has arrived already.

BOSTON FISH PRICES

BOSTON, Mass., Oct. 9.—Quotations on the Boston fish market today were as follows: Large cod, 4 1/2 to 5; market cod, 3 1/2 to 4; haddock, 3 1/2 to 4; pollock and halibut, 3 to 3 1/2.

Mussolini Planning Italian War on Turkey, London Journal Declares

Jackie Coogan Gets $250,000 Hair Shearing

HOLLYWOOD, Cal., Oct. 9.—Jackie Coogan has had a $250,000 hair cut. Jackie's long tresses were clipped off in San Francisco with cameras recording the action on 500 feet of film. It will be the last screen appearance of young Coogan as a "Baby Star."

MAY SURRENDER CITY TOMORROW

Scenes of Horror in Wuchang Told by Correspondent

EXTEND BOUNDARIES

HANKOW, China, Oct. 9.—Ten thousand people have died, most of them from starvation, in the horror city of Wuchang since the Cantonese Red army began its siege at the end of August. The figures are those of Chinese officials. No white man could penetrate the barred buildings, within which thousands succumbed in secret misery.

STARTING THE CITY

Falling in their efforts to carry out hand-to-hand fighting in the city streets, the Cantonese, at a safe distance, maintain a war of attrition—starvation their weapon.

120 Miners Trapped in South Africa Blast

CAPETOWN, South Africa, Oct. 9.—Four white men and 116 natives were entombed by a gas explosion yesterday in the Durban Navigation Company's coal mine at Darnhauser, Natal. Rescuers, working through the night, succeeded only in bringing 11 bodies to the surface. The smoke and flames from the shaft at the time of the explosion, were visible for two miles. There is little hope of reaching the entombed men.

GOING TO MEXICO

BERLIN, Oct. 9.—It is reported that Prince Henry of Prussia, brother of the former Kaiser, will go to Mexico shortly aboard the motorship Illo Bravo.

Veniot Promises Aid To Post Office Men To Obtain Raise

OTTAWA, Oct. 9.—Another strenuous effort is to be made to obtain an amalgamation of all post office employees in Canada. At yesterday's session of the convention of Dominion Postal Clerks Association, a resolution was passed endorsing the idea of one great association for postal employees.

LAWYERS CLASH IN MURDER CASE AT JOLIETTE

Trial of Maguire Brothers Set Over Until Monday

WITNESS BALKS

Refuses to Swear to Statements Contained in Deposition Made Before

JOLIETTE, Que., Oct. 9.—The trial of Patrick and Edward Maguire for the murder of Robert Tyhurst, at St. Michel Des Saints on the night of December 4, 1925, ended its fifth day yesterday and for the first time since the opening, lawyers for the defence and crown abandoned the examination of a witness to enter into a legal tilt to determine the right of the crown to have one of its witnesses declared hostile.

Willie Desreault, associate of Dr. Charles Charpentier in the midnight ride in search of the car driven by the murderers, and his reluctance to answer questions put to him by F. Philippe Brals, Crown prosecutor, were the cause of all the trouble, and at the end of the day, after Desreault had been examined by chief Dan Larrain on the night of December 4, 1925, ended its fifth day yesterday and for the first time since the opening, lawyers for the defence and crown abandoned the examination of a witness to enter into a legal tilt to determine the right of the crown to have one of its witnesses declared hostile.

TROUBLE WITH WITNESS

Some time after the preliminary enquiry into the charge against the Maguire boys, Desreault went to Montreal to be interviewed by chief Dan Larrain of the provincial police. He made a sworn deposition concerning this and Dr. Charpentier's meeting with the Maguire brothers on the road from St. Michel Des Saints to St. Zenon. He admitted on the stand today that he had made such a deposition, but he would not admit that parts of it quoted by the crown were true according to fact. He did not deny that he had made them, and, while protecting his good faith at the time, he would not swear again that they were entirely true.

HEARING ADJOURNED

The witness became reluctant to answer questions put to him, and time again was had to be taken to speak up by the jurors, who sat only a few feet away from him. As Philippe Brals attempted to quote from the sworn deposition, all three of the defence counsel were on their feet with objections, and throughout the remainder of the hearing objection followed objection until the court, called upon to adjourn, called it a day and adjourned the trial until Monday morning.

PERLEY IS LIKELY CHOICE AS LEADER

Toronto Paper Says He is Not Inclined to Accept Onerous Position

TORONTO, Ont., Oct. 9.—The Mail and Empire today publishes the following dispatch from its staff reporter in Ottawa:

"On Monday Sir George Perley will be chosen House leader of the Conservative party if he will accept the position. Sir George does not desire the leadership, and the close application and hard work it will entail, but his former cabinet colleagues are urging him to subordinate his personal wishes to the party welfare."

WON HANDICAP

KEMPTON PARK, Eng., Oct. 9.—J. Shepherd's Winalot, of Son-In-Law out of Gallena, won the Duke of York handicap run here today.

Mother of 17 Fussed When 15 Take Measles

THIS is the Barini family, largest in all Montana, with Papa Barini at the left and Mama Barini on the right. Only once has Mrs. Dan Barini, champ mother of the great open spaces, been a bit fussed, as it were, by her 17 children. That was when 15 of them had measles at once! It was rather difficult for Mrs. Barini to get them all cured without the aid of a doctor, she confesses. But she did it. The family roster runs—Daniel, 21; Joseph and Peter, 20; Olympia, 19; John, 18; Alexander, 16; Mary, 15; Emilie, 14; Carolina, 12; Inez, 11; William, 10; Sylvester, 8; Renaldo, 7; Rudolph, 6; Ida, 5; Emilia, 4; Theodore, 3.

Youth Shelved; Old Timers Picked For Mound In Crucial Series Game

Alexander and Shawkey to Start in Sixth Contest; Both Teams Set for Ding-Dong Struggle, as Cardinals Face Last Hope of Victory

NEW YORK, Oct. 9.—With a realization that the situation has narrowed to a question of now or never, the St. Louis Cardinals declared today that they would fight desperately for the sixth game of the world series, that a seventh may be necessary.

The New York Yankees, with the world's baseball championship theirs if they can win today, made no secret of a determined opposition to be offered to the Red Holed invasion from the west. The Yanks think a game in the glove today better than a possible base hit tomorrow.

Managerial forecasts indicated that both must wait for another series to be served. Rogers Hornsby was gambling his baseball all on Grover Cleveland Alexander, who will be 40 years of age February 29, and was such a good pitcher as long ago as 1916, he was able to contribute 16 shutout victories to the cause of the Philadelphia Nationals. He has spent 15 summers in the major leagues.

HUGGINS FAVORS SHAWKEY Miller Huggins frankly favored Robert J. Shawkey, three years Alexander's junior, with 19 major league seasons behind him. Shawkey will celebrate his 38th birthday December 4. He has been a member of the New York pitching staff ten years.

Both veterans have been down for a baseball bout but were on their feet again before the fatal "ten" sounded. Alexander this season, found his way into the second world series when the Chicago Cubs asked waivers on him, and the Cardinals refused to pass. The Philadelphia Athletics sought waivers on Shawkey once known as "Bob the gov" in 1916, when the Yanks claimed his services. Shawkey's red undershirt, made famous as a part of his baseball equipment, has been carried into five world series.

CRUCIAL GAME The Cardinals must go into the crucial game without the services of Taylor Douthit, sensational young California outfielder. He came to New York with the St. Louis team, but unless he stages a remarkable recovery, he will see the remainder of the series from a place beside Ray Blades, another fast but disabled Cardinal outfielder. Douthit was injured in a collision with Chick Hafey in the fourth game of the series. The crash left Douthit's ribs in poor condition for further play, although he completed the game in which the injury occurred, throwing out a Yankee runner at the plate and later getting a base hit. Kooze Holm will play centrefield. In St. Louis Thursday, Holm played one of the deepest centrefields on record, almost a sub centre.

Fair weather was forecast for today, but should the weather prospect later prove displeasing, the game will go over for consideration tomorrow.

WON HANDICAP. KEMPTON PARK, Eng., Oct. 9.—J. Shepherd's Winalot, of Son-In-Law out of Gallena, won the Duke of York handicap run here today.

EXPRESS SAYS AREA SOUGHT IN ASIA MINOR

Greece to Co-operate by Attack Through Thrace

PEACE EFFORTS

Britain, With Aid of United States, May Prevent Clash, Paper Thinks

LONDON, Oct. 9.—The Daily Express, without quoting its authority, declares that "Mussolini is planning war on Turkey." His object, the newspaper says, "is to seize the sphere of interest on the Adalcan coast, Asia Minor, which the secret London pact of 1916 promised to Italy, but which pact subsequently was declared null and void. The Turks have mobilized army corps in the threatened area."

MUSSOLINI CONFIDENT

Mussolini, the paper says, believes the methods he has devised cannot possibly fail if put into operation. Greece would attack Turkey through Thrace, while the Italians attacked in the south. Greece's reward would be the re-possession of the Smyrna territory. Rumania's neutrality was secured by a promise of support regarding Bessarabia. Great international efforts are being made, the Daily Express declares, to persuade Mussolini to desist, and it is urged in some quarters that the United States should be invited to exert its influence for peace. While France is believed to be not entirely averse to the Italian aims if they can be attained without war, the newspaper believes that Great Britain is on the side of peace and her efforts, in conjunction with possible aid from the United States may limit Mussolini's plans to an unfulfilled threat.

MINIMIZE PERIL

While there is some anxiety regarding Mussolini's future plans, the present tendency in government quarters here is to minimize the peril as officials believe that inasmuch as Italy was a signatory in the Locarno Treaty and is also a member of the League of Nations that Mussolini would not take any action liable to provoke an open outbreak but would seek to secure his aims by peaceful means.

BRITISH VIEWPOINT

Certainly, it is not believed that Italy is preparing for war with Turkey. No attempt is made to discuss the anxiety in other circles where there is a tendency to believe that Sir Austen Chamberlain, Britain's foreign secretary, is too closely linked with Mussolini for the good of Europe. In labor circles, it is asserted that Chamberlain has used Mussolini's threat of war to force Turkey to be reasonable regarding Mosul, but this has always been strenuously denied.

It is admitted that Chamberlain's policy is directed toward peace but it is asserted that he plays with fire. It is understood that Chamberlain will explain his Italian policy to the delegates at the Imperial Conference when it meets this month.

The Weather

SYNOPSIS: Pressure is high over the Great Lakes, and Eastern States, also over the Far Northwest States, and a fairly deep depression in the Middle Pacific coast. Showers have occurred in some sections of New Brunswick, and Saskatchewan; while in other parts of the Dominion the weather has been Fair and Cool.

MARITIME—Moderate to fresh northerly winds, mostly fair and cool tonight and Sunday.

NEW ENGLAND—Partly cloudy tonight, Sunday fair, not much change in temperature; moderate to fresh north winds.

THE GREAT LAKES AND EASTERN STATES—Moderate to fresh northerly winds, mostly fair and cool tonight and Sunday.

THE MIDDLE PACIFIC COAST—Partly cloudy tonight, Sunday fair, not much change in temperature; moderate to fresh north winds.

Today's Line-Up

NEW YORK, Oct. 9.—The probable line-up of the teams in today's world's series game here will be as follows:

ST. LOUIS: Holm, c. f.; Southworth, r. f.; Hornsby, 2b.; Bottomley, 1b.; L. Bell, 3b.; Hafey, 1. f.; O'Farrell, c.; Thevenow, s. s.; Alexander, p. Umpires: 'O'Day, plate; Hildebrand, first base; Klem, second base; Dineen, third base.

SOVIET LEADERS FACE PUNISHMENT

Trotzky, Zinovieff and Piatakov Fled For Opposition to Party

MOSCOW, Oct. 9.—Disciplinary measures against Trotsky, Zinovieff and Piatakov, for their recent attempts to exercise the views of the opposition when the communist party meets, are foreshadowed in a resolution adopted yesterday by the political bureau of the party. This resolution characterizes their action as "unprecedented and a flagrant violation of the basic principles of party life."

LINERS CRASH

GLASGOW, SCOTLAND, Oct. 9.—Great excitement was caused today among several hundred passengers on board the outward bound liners Caledonia and Aurania, when the two steamers collided at Greenock in a heavy sea and gale. The only damage inflicted was above the water line, and the vessels were able to proceed.

ONE THIS MORNING

One man was given the option of 88 or two months in jail in the Police Court this morning for being drunk.

Hodges, Blaming Leaders, Says Mine Strike Will Never End

LONDON, Oct. 9.—Blaming the leaders, Frank Hodges, Secretary of the International Miners' Association and former secretary of the British Federation, said today that there would never be a settlement of the British coal strike.

In a statement issued to the press, Hodges, who was A. J. Cook's predecessor, said: "As things are now, there never will be a settlement. All the great, yet fleeting opportunities for an honorable peace have been thrown away by the leaders, who seem bent on obtaining, not the best, but the worst possible, economic terms."

"The British miners' federation is crumbling. The district associations alone remain intact and viable."

Hodges was secretary of the British Federation six years, being succeeded by Cook in 1922.
