any are extending their lighting line pany are extending their lighting filter to Fairville Plateau, M. A. Pooler, general manager of the company, said this morning. This would provide service for about 25 or 30 families and street lighting for an area which had been in darkness up to this time.

Asked concerning a report that the municipality was financing a part of this work, Mr. Pooler said there was nothing to it, as the company was not seeking any aid from the municipality.

Councillor J. T. O'Brien said the board of management had asked the company to extend their street lighting.

Councillor J. T. O'Brien said the board of management had asked the company to extend their street lighting to the plateau and to the Sand Cove Crossing, under the contract which they now had and under legislation which gave them the right to extend the lighting district, and they paid the same rate per lamp as for the other street lights.

Commissioner Issues Warning-Police are Told to Watch for Offenders.

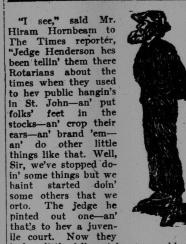

Commissioner Thornton said this morning that his attention had been called to the fact that many boys were seen around the streets smoking cigarettes, and he issued a warning that selling to minors must be stopped. The police had been given instructions to watch carefully and offenders would receive the full penalty of the law.
