FROM AFRICA'S
SUNNY SHORES

An interesting trade story, that reads almost like a romance has come to the St. John Branch of Trade from Nigeria West Africa. Throughout the story the character of the goods is splendid, the soil, field and forest products, and the methods by which they are prepared for export, and the character of the other valuable information are included in the story, which comes in the nature of a report from the customs house at Lagos, Nigeria, on "The Development of Trade Relations between Canada and Nigeria."

In reference to shipping, there is embodied in the report a letter from the firm of Elder Dempster & Co. Ltd., with respect to St. John connections, this letter states:

"From Montreal we have a through rate arrangement with the Canadian Pacific Railway Co., and the goods are shipped from this place during the time the river St. Lawrence is open, and from St. John, N. B. during the winter months.
The only cargo we carry from these latter ports is flour and the rate on this via Liverpool is 87s. 6d. a ton net. (This however, no arrangements to carry number or provisions by this route.) It is stated that at Montreal and St. John the C. P. R. Co. act for the firm, names of which are not given. The population of this West African district is sixteen million. Judging by the photographs they are not very different from those of our own people. The chief products for export are barwood, bananas, beeswax, boro, palm kernels, palm oil, calobon beans, cassia, corn, cotton, cottonseed, coffee, feathers, gum, ginger, nuts of various kinds, gum, gutta percha, hemp, hides and leather, ivory, live stock, mahogany, walnut, oil beans, pepper, redwood, rubber and spirits.

Among these imports from Canada and this side of the Atlantic are oranges, fancy goods, builders material, druggists goods, china, glassware, enamelware, furniture, hardware, jewelry, leather, goods, machinery, paints, provisions, sporting goods, textile goods, cycles, motor cars, etc.

This interesting report may be consulted at the board of trade rooms.

RENTS BOOSTED IN DOMINION CAPITAL

Ottawa, Jan. 29.—An increase in rents for residences all the way from $2 to $15 a month, and some instances on commercial properties 100 per cent or more, are to be effective in Ottawa after May 1st, according to new leases being made by local real estate dealers.

A head full of knowledge is like a full barrel: Not of much use until it dispenses its contents.—Forbes Magazine

WORKING OF COURT OF HONOR

Responsibilities of Boy Scout Troop Leaders Are Defined
—Work of Local Troops—
New Honor for Chief Scout.

THE BOY SCOUT

Court of Honor.

Again the Court of Honor may meet in its judicial capacity. For this purpose its constitution may be slightly altered, or on the other hand, it may remain exactly the same. Some courts, when meeting in the judicial capacity, consist of a kind of senior sub-committee composed of the scoutmaster and two or three specially selected patrol leaders. At any rate when a member of the troop is in trial anybody junior to him in rank should be asked to withdraw. The court only meets in its judicial capacity of some breach of scout law has been committed. Thus in a good troop it would not have to meet more than two or three times in a year. At a judicial court of honor the members should be on their honor not to discuss the vote or opinion of any particular member afterwards. Any verdict stands as the decision of the court as a whole.
The greatest advantage of the court of honor is that it is responsible for his patrol, but he never feels this responsibility more clearly than he does at the meeting of the court of honor. He not only has to give a report of what his patrol is doing, but he must also explain sickness or non-attendance on the part of any of his boys. He may be asked for instance, why he has got a scout wearing a service star who has not yet earned any proficiency badges, or he may be asked whether Tom Smith, who yesterday broke his arm, is at home or in hospital and, if in hospital, what are the visiting days.

It will be found helpful for a scoutmaster who is starting a court of honor to draft a simple "constitution" defining the duties and powers of the court. This should be read and approved at the first meeting, and entered in the minute book.
It is not wise, for example to grant the power of dismissing a scout unless the leaders are senior boys with a thorough understanding of the aims and ideals of the movement. If it is understood that the scoutmaster holds a final veto over the decision the court makes, it is almost certain that he will never have to use it.
8th Troop (Mission).

The meeting before last was spent in visiting the 18th St. John (Coburg St.
Christian) Troop. A very pleasant evening was spent. At the last troop meeting Dr. Skinner, the examiner for the Wallace Nesbitt Junior First Aid Competition, examined the Mission Troop team for the above competition. The team was as follows:—Thomas Mowry, Herbert Se, Harold Dinnington, John Joe-ton and Kenneth Mowry. They were prepared and trained for this competition by John Gorton of the St. John, N. B.
Lance Association who takes more than an ordinary interest in this Troop.

New Year Honors. 4.
Extract from official list: "Baronets.
—Lieut.-General Sir Robert Stephenson Smyth Bader-Fowler, K. C. B., A. V. C., O. I. Founder of the Boy Scout Movement."

we are sure that all our readers will wish to join us in congratulating him Chief on his well-deserved honor he has received, and wishing him success in the future.
