Was Troubled With

BOILS

For Six Months

From the days of Job to the present time, boils have been one of the greatest afflictions of the human race.
Very few people escape from having them at some time.
All the poisoning and lancing you may do won't cure them and stop more coming.

Boils are caused by bad blood bursting out, and the bad blood must be made pure before the boils will disappear.
Burdock Blood Bitters is the greatest blood purifier known. It cleanses the system, and purifies the blood by removing every particle of foul material from the system, and when this is done, never another boil comes and health and strength are permanently restored.

Mr. C. H. Bridges, 470 Barton St. E., Hamilton, Ont., writes:—“I was troubled with boils for about six months and tried several remedies without any relief until I tried Burdock Blood Bitters, and the effect has been wonderful. After using two bottles, I was rid of them all. I feel like a new man; my appetite is better,
and I sleep better than I have for years.
I can highly recommend B. B. B. to all who are troubled as I was.”

Burdock Blood Bitters has been on the market for the past 40 years, and manufactured only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

Will Labor's Mighty Forces Form a New Party?

“Third Parties” in the United States have generally come to grief, but the scope of the new movement to organize “hand and brain” workers into a political unit and its appearance in a winter of unrest and discontent convince observers that history is likely to repeat herself in this instance. Samuel Gompers, a consistent opponent of the Labor-party idea, pleaded with New York leaders on the eve of his departure for Europe not to join the new government, but within a week, as The Evening Post (New York) notes, a New York Central Federated Union, the Brooklyn Central Labor Union, and the Woman's Trade Union League had met in convention and created the most formidable of the local party organizations.

In an enlightening article in this week's LITERARY DIGEST—February 1st—all the particulars of this new political movement are shown. The platform adopted in New York is also presented. A new political labor party directly affects millions of men and women in this country. Don't fail to read about this latest development in our industrial life.

“Within The Law,” Well Presented By Amateurs

Performance Under Auspices of L. & B. Society Proves Great Success—Crowded Houses at Each Performance

Frankly, it was a pleasant surprise. The production of “Within The Law” was an ambitious undertaking for a group of amateurs and one was not prepared to expect more than the usual average of amateur performances. A clever cast, skilful direction and training and lots of hard work resulted in something different. There was a smoothness and finish to the performance, an intelligent conception and interpretation of the various roles and a naturalness in the acting which would have done credit to a professional company. Several members of the cast were exceptionally good and all shared in the credit for the success of the performance. Both in the afternoon and evening the Opera House was filled to its utmost capacity with sympathetic and responsive audiences and the Irish Literary and Benevolent Society, under whose auspices the play was given, should proud themselves on the success of the company. This well known play is built around the scheme for revenge evolved by a seafarer who was sent to the penitentiary for three years for thefts which he did not commit, largely through the desire of the proprietor of the store to furnish a warning to others. The role of the seafarer is an exceptionally heavy one for an amateur to undertake and Miss Vera King is to be congratulated on the measure of success which she attained in it. J. R. McCloskey, to whose efforts as director is due much of the credit for the finished performance, also scored a personal success in the role of the police inspector. His acting was natural and convincing and he secured some fine comedy effects. As Joe Garson, the former forger who could not resist his criminal tendencies, he paid the price of his crime willingly in order to protect her, Guy C. Hansen fully sustained the reputation which he has won on other occasions. The restraint which marked his work and the easy way in which he secured his best effects raised his interpretation above the amateur class. Miss Loyola Duffy also won laurels in the role of the girl crook. She was good in every scene in which she appeared and her work left little to be desired. To portray the slinky guttersnipe, with the veneer of refinement for which the role called at times, so well as she did, was no small accomplishment.

As Richard Gilder, E. R. Hansen had a part which kept him in the centre of the stage throughout the four acts and, especially in the stronger scenes, his acting was natural and consistent.

F. J. Joyce had one of the heaviest roles as the proprietor of the Emporium and his choice for this part was fully justified by the way in which he filled it.

In an unsympathetic role, F. Morris was excellent as the detective sergeant. W. J. O'Leary appeared as Gilder's lawyer and made the character dignified and impressive. J. W. E. Gale had a difficult role in that of “English Eddie” and filled it admirably. Miss Irene O'Brien appeared as the thief shop girl and Miss Vera George was a maid who acted as maid is expected to act in real life. W. J. Quigg, F. E. O'Donnell, A. Dolan and George Stafford filled minor roles satisfactorily.

The careful and painstaking work in long and arduous rehearsals bore fruit yesterday in a performance which was gratifying to the audience and which should be equally so to each member of the cast, which was as follows:

- Smithson, Floorwalker at “The Emporium.”
P. A. Coholan.
Richard Gilder... Edward Gilder's Son
E. R. Hansen.
Edward Gilder, Proprietor of “The Emporium.”

George Demarest, Edward Gilder's Lawyer.
W. J. O'Leary.
