Pleasant With Blackburne.
New York, May 7.—In a letter to a friend here, Manager Christie Mathewson of the Cincinnati Reds, speaks enthusiastically of the work of Shortstop "Lena" Blackburne, whom he credits with solving the shortstop problem for the Reds. The former Toronto captain has been covering a lot of territory in the Cincinnati infield this season, and Matty is pleased with the manner in which he is working with Second baseman Les Magee.
The Red fans, who are usually hard to please, are unanimous in the opinion that Blackburne is playing the position better than Charley Herron. Blackburne is doing his share of hitting, too, and "Matty," who was greatly worried over his infield, now expresses confidence that the former Torontonian has solved a vexed problem.
Ready to Succeed Matty.
Charlie Carr, former Kansas City and Indianapolis American Association manager, who played with Toronto about fifteen years ago, has applied for the position of manager of the Cincinnati Nationals in case Christie Mathewson decides to go to France to promote baseball back of the lines.
If Matty does not go Carr has volunteered to go instead, provided the National Commission will look after his

Was Not For Sale.
New York, May 8.—Some idea of the value of Hourless may be gained with the knowledge that as a two-year-old Charles Clark, son of William A. Clark, the Montana mining king and one-time senator, offered $50,000 for the youngster. The colts' owner refused to entertain any proposition for the sale of the youngster when he was asked to set a price. Taking a line through that happening and the knowledge that Major Belmont is keen in relation to breeding, it would appear that no amount would

SATISFIED WITH WOMEN WORKERS.
Spokane, Wash., April 20.—(Correspondence)—The number of concerns that are employing women in the place of men is growing steadily. The White Pine Sash Company, of this city, is one of the concerns that early began the employment of women. As this company is a wholesale manufacturer of pine knock-down windows, frames, turned work, etc., there are a number of positions in its plant that women can fill and have been filling with success for the last seven or eight months. H. G. Klopp, president of the White Pine Sash Company, expresses himself as being satisfied with the work the women are doing, stating that he finds they pay better attention to their work and are steadier than the boys whose places they fill.
Washington, April 22.—(Correspondence)—Approximately 20,000 women have been placed in positions through the federal employment service since Feb. 1, according to Mrs. Hilda Muhl-
