

DIOCESAN W.A. MEETING CLOSES

Election of Officers for Year
Announced—Bishop Heard.

The twenty-first annual meeting of the Fredericton diocesan branch of the Women's Auxiliary concluded yesterday afternoon, following an inspiring address by His Lordship Bishop Richardson. At the afternoon session results of the election for officers for the ensuing year were announced and showed but one change over last year—Miss L. Peters of Gagetown being the new girls' secretary, in place of Mrs. R. Clendish, who is leaving New Brunswick.

The officers elected were as follows:
Honorary president, Mrs. John Richardson, Fredericton; honorary vice-president, Mrs. Thomas Walker, St.

John; president, Mrs. George F. Smith, St. John; first vice-president, Mrs. James F. Robertson, St. John; second vice-president, Mrs. L. R. Harrison, St. John; third vice-president, Mrs. Allan Smithers, Fredericton; corresponding secretary, Miss Clara Schofield, St. John; recording secretary, Mrs. Rowland Frith, St. John; treasurer, Mrs. G. C. P. McIntyre, St. John; treasurer E. C. D. fund, Mrs. J. Roy Campbell, St. John; Dorcas secretary, Mrs. John Hay, St. John; convener of literature, Mrs. Cortlandt Robinson, St. John; secretary-treasurer of "Living Message," Miss Muriel Fairweather, Rothesay; girls' secretary, Miss Lou Peters, Gagetown; junior secretary-treasurer, Miss Portia MacKenzie, St. John; secretary-treasurer Little Helpers, Mrs. J. Lee Day, St. John; editor of "Living Message," Miss Sadler, St. John; secretary-treasurer Pickett memorial fund, Miss E. R. Scovill, Gagetown; secretary organising committee, Mrs. W. D. Forster, St. John; and secretary prayer partners, Miss Sadler, St. John.

Afternoon Session.
Miss Sadler reported on prayer partners, telling of four new partners. Reports from the new branches of Ortonville, St. Martins and Lake Edwards were read.

A hearty vote of thanks was extended to Miss Loretta Shaw for the collection of Japanese curios exhibited which Miss Shaw has presented to the W. A.

Mrs. James F. Robertson moved and Mrs. Allan Daniel seconded the following resolution of appreciation extended to Rev. Canon and Mrs. R. A. Armstrong:

"We, the members of the Woman's Auxiliary, wish to convey to Canon and Mrs. Armstrong our sincere regret at their projected departure from our midst, and our great thankfulness that they have been with us these many years. Canon Armstrong has been one of the greatest sources of inspiration to our society in this diocese. During the last 17 years he has spoken to us many times words of warning, of encouragement, of consolation, of loving guidance and has always left us a message of hope. We are sorry to say farewell to our dear co-worker and life member, Mr. Armstrong. Our prayer is that the many blessings that Canon and Mrs. Armstrong have showered upon others may be reflected in their own lives in their new home."

Mrs. James F. Robertson gave her paper, a retrospect of the W. A. in Fredericton Diocese, which was greatly enjoyed.

A vote of thanks was extended to Mrs. Brigstock for her annual gift of $25. Mrs. Brigstock, now 87 years old, is the widow of Archdeacon Brigstock, former rector of Trinity church, and has resided in England for many years.

Mrs. A. L. Fleming spoke of "A Vision of the W. A." A three-fold vision, the extending of God's kingdom to the ends of the earth, the bringing in of those "other sheep" of Christ, and of the spreading of the Gospel in all lands through the Holy Ghost. She stressed the thought that Christ was depending on each of His followers to publish the good tidings and especially upon the women. There were, she said, 800,000,000 people in the world who had not heard of Christ. The 400,000,000 people in England sent 5,000,000 soldiers to the great war, but 40,000,000 church people had sent only 20,000 for the cause of Christ.

The delegates to the Dominion triennial were elected as follows: Mrs. Heber Vroom, St. John; Mrs. Charles Sargeant, South Nelson; Mrs. Alfred Morrisey, St. John; Mrs. J. Taylor, Fredericton; substitutes, Mrs. Scott, St. John; Mrs. Corey Green and Mrs. J. D. Seely, St. John.

Designation of Fees.
The life membership fees $350 were voted on as follows: Diocesan needs, parsonage improvements, 98; communion vessels for mission, 46; Canadian needs, furnishing deaconess' shack, Saskatchewan, 188; west coast mission, 12; overseas needs, preaching tent, Honan, China, 88; church literature of Japan, 54.

Diocesan fund, $179.64, was divided between Prince William Duffries and Hartland.

The E. C. D. funds, $885, were designated as follows: Diocesan needs, 78; parsonage improvements, 84; Canadian needs, furnishing vicarage shacks in Qu'Appelle, 111; repairing mission house, Fort Simpson, 41.

The Little Helpers' fees, $345, were designated as follows: Diocesan needs, 100; Denmark, 120; Sunday school books, 88; Canadian needs, Indian children book fund, 51; Sunday school by post, 97; overseas needs, Christmas gifts for India, 89; for Japan, 42.

Votes of thanks were extended for the use of the church and hall and to the Bishop, the speakers, the luncheon committee, and all who assisted in the success of the meeting.

Bishop Richardson.
Bishop Richardson gave the closing address and spoke of the W. A. as a great power in the diocese. He wished he had four times as many members but warned against the danger of emphasizing quantity rather than quality. It was possible and wise to gain by subtraction sometimes. The true success of the annual meeting was found in individuals who attended. Each attended as a representative of a branch and should carry back the spirituality of the meeting as well as the details of business, to be a focus of power in her locality.

To those who came from small parochial branches, he said glowing reports were not the real thing that was to translate Christ in their lives. He urged them not to be discouraged; often nothing succeeded like failure. The W. A. was to function as a missionary organization first and foremost, diocesan needs came second. In conclusion he extended thanks to the W. A. members as his helpers and recommended the delegates wearing a distinctive badge as a means of recognition on the journey to and from the annual meeting. Wherever there was a W. A. branch the church was not going to die. He thanked God for the W. A. and for its consecrated officers.

The fire department was called out twice yesterday, the first time on account of an oil stove catching on fire in a room of the house on the corner of Queen and Carmarthen streets while new tenants, who had arrived in the rain storm, were trying to dry out bedding that had just been moved in. The burning stove was thrown out a window and there was no damage other than the destruction of the oil stove. Shortly after 10 o'clock last night a chimney fire in the Union street residence occupied by H. Shirley near the corner of Charlotte and Union streets called the firemen out. A good dose of coarse salt put the fire out in the flue and prevented any more dense smoke from alarming the people in the street.

DEATHS

Mrs. H. E. Wardroper.

The sympathy of the community is being extended to Herbert E. Wardroper, Common Clerk of the city, in the death of his wife, Helen Maria, which occurred yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Wardroper had been an invalid for the last eleven years, and for the last two years and eight months had been entirely helpless. She was a daughter of the late Thomas Hatheway of this city, and in days before her illness took an active interest in all community welfare work, was one of the ladies responsible for the bringing of the Victorian Order of Nurses to this city, and was a leader in Red Cross work.

Besides her husband, she is survived by one sister, Mrs. Charles W. Lombard of Missoula, Montana, and several nieces and nephews. The funeral will be held on Saturday afternoon from Stone church. The service will be held at 2:30. The body is to rest in the church from Saturday morning until the time of the service.

Francis Neason.

The death of Francis Neason, a native of Birmingham, Eng., occurred yesterday at his residence, 189 Britain street. For more than 30 years Mr. Neason had been an engineer in the employ of the New Brunswick Power Company and its predecessors. He had been ill for about a year and a half and had not been engaged at his work for two years. He is survived by his wife. The funeral will be held from his residence tomorrow afternoon.

Earl Clarke.

Earl Clarke, Dominion Express clerk, died at McAdam on Wednesday after a short illness. He was 30 years old. He is survived by his wife and his parents.

Francis Duffy.

Francis Duffy died at his residence, 104 Francis Edward street, last night. He leaves to mourn one daughter, Miss

LET DOGS BEWARE.

J. H. Frink, Commissioner of Public Works, announced yesterday that the pound keeper was now right on the job of taking into custody any dogs found prowling around the flower beds in the squares of the city. The beds have all been uncovered in the King Square and show promise of bountiful supplies of blooms, if they are not disturbed as the tender bulbs are coming into life and beauty. A late pedestrian on Tuesday night, found a big dog digging vigorously in one of the flower beds. Being frightened away, he ran some distance but returned to another part of the square. One of the men at the ambulance station used his stern voice and considerable determination in putting to flight the midnight marauder.
