Victoria street Free Baptist Sunday school will give an Easter cantata on Monday evening. There will be sixty voices in the chorus.

Herbert Addison has been reported by the police for riding at a furious rate of speed on Union street last evening, between six and seven o'clock.

The house owned and occupied by W. Connolly, Jacksonville, was destroyed by fire last night. All the furniture, except an organ, was lost. The insurance was small.

A baby born last week came into the world with a complete set of teeth and consequently caused quite a flutter in the neighborhood. The happy mother is Mrs. John Tiner, who resides at the corner of Carmarthen and Broad streets.

Hand-made boots and shoes. A number of pairs of men's custom hand-sewed shoes of Box and Niagara calf-skin. Made to order for $6.50, now selling at $4.50. All my own make. Also first-class repairing promptly done. C. W. Goddard, Brussels street.

Last evening at the home of the bride's mother, in Woodstock, a quiet wedding took place, when Rev. Z. L. Nish, assisted by Rev. J. A. Cahill, united in marriage Rev. Fred S. Todd and Miss Ida Estey. Only a few immediate friends of the contracting parties were present. Numerous costly presents were received.

The death of James W. Foley occurred on Wednesday. He was of the former pottery firm of Foley & Foley, deceased. Was a sufferer from pneumonia. He came to this country from England when a child and spent practically his life in connection with the pottery establishment on Loch Lomond road. Deceased leaves his wife and seven children. The funeral will be held tomorrow.

Your attention is called to the sale tomorrow morning, at Chubb's Corner, by F. L. Potts, of the Ben Leonard House and lands. COMING!

Nordica, Nordica. OPERA HOUSE, Monday, April 11.

AN ANNOYING DELAY.

About half-past twelve at noon today a large freight train held up the traffic along Mill street for about seven or eight minutes. The street car service was temporarily interrupted, with and people passing to and fro were compelled to brook a delay. Some very plain and outspoken expressions of indignation were heard, but from inquiries made at the C. P. R. terminal office it appears that the temporary interference with traffic was unavoidable.

GOOD FRIDAY.

Quietly Celebrated in St. John—Churches Attended by Large Congregations.

Not for years has Good Friday been so quietly observed. The city is completely devoid of any sort of amusement or diversion. From a holiday standpoint the day is all that could be expected of it at this time of the year, the weather being clear and crisp. Early in the morning it was quite cool, but as the day advanced the warmth of the spring sun made itself felt.

The day presents a marked contrast with the usual summer holiday. The streets have been alive with people all day, taking advantage of the refreshing cool air.

In most of the churches of the city the ordinary Good Friday services were held this morning. Centenary Rev. G. M. Campbell preached. The choir rendered the usual Good Friday music.

At the Queen Square Methodist church the pastor, Rev. Dr. Sprague, preached the Good Friday sermon. The choir were assisted by the Sunday school. At the close of the service there was a rehearsal of the Easter Sunday music.

Rev. Dr. Fraser preached at St. Stephen's Presbyterian church. The choir rendered some special music from Handel's "Messiah." Trinity church will hold its annual Good Friday musical service this evening, beginning at 7:30 o'clock. The first part will consist of the anthem Come Unto Him, by Gounod, sung unaccompanied by the full choir; Was Despised and Rejected, from the Messiah, by Miss McCann, and There is a Green Hill Far Away, rendered by the choir.

St. John and St. Andrew's Presbyterian churches held special services this evening preparatory to the Easter communion.

All the Catholic churches celebrated the holy day with the usual solemnity and services at the various churches this morning were largely attended.

PERSONALS.

Chas. H. Quinlan, who has lived at Eureka, California, for a number of years and occupied the position of clerk in the big hotel there, left for that place yesterday afternoon. Mr. Quinlan came here on account of ill health and spent some weeks with his brother, W. A. Quinlan, in Lancaster. He improved very much during his sojourn in his old home.

Deputy Mayor McGoldrick and Miss Kitty McGoldrick left last night for Dorchester, Mass., to visit Rev. Thos. C. McGoldrick, who has been reported seriously ill there. A letter received by relatives here yesterday announced that Father McGoldrick was comfortable here for several days previous to that time.

Miss Evelyn Stockton, daughter of Dr. A. A. Stockton, will be in this afternoon for New York City, where she will engage in nursing in Trinity Hospital.

The marriage of Miss E. Hurd Campbell and I. E. Rourke, of Ottawa, will take place at the Mission Church of St. John the Baptist on Tuesday, April 6, at 3 o'clock.

Miss Florence Hawthorne, of Fredericton, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. G. D. Sweeney, of this city.

Miss M. Ethel McLean, graduate nurse of Greenwood, Me., is visiting her sister, Mrs. D. McLean, Waterloo street.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Hoffman and their daughter, Hazel, from St. John, are the guests of M. Hoffman, Victoria street, Amherst News.

Miss Jessie Holder, of St. John, is visiting her brother, John S. Holder, in Amherst.

Miss Annie Lingley, of Charlotte street, West End, is home from Stoneham, Mass., where she has been spending some months.

PLAN OPENS TOMORROW.

Some Things to Remember. When subscribers apply for Nordica tickets tomorrow morning they will be expected to give their name, or the name of the party whom they represent. As each subscriber's tickets are supplied their names will be checked off the list.

Mr. Spencer will be in the box office in charge of the subscription list, and every precaution will be exercised that the entire sale may be for subscribers only.

FIRES IN MARCEL.

There were only five alarms of fire in the city during the month of March. Following are the alarms: 17th, Box 116—Perry toll house, West Side, electric wires crossed. 11th, Box 142—Maritime Nail Works totally destroyed; loss about $90,000; insurance $29,000. 15th, Box 53—House owned by Winter's estate, Waterloo street; sparks on roof. 17th, Box 231—Edge tool factory of the Josiah Fowler Co., Ltd., City road; slight fire in tempering department. 21th, Box 13—Needless alarm.

IRISH DRAMA. Those who appreciate good Irish drama should not fail to see Arrah-Nagoo, the bill the Dalley Company are to re-open with on Easter Monday night. It is considered by many good judges to be the best Irish drama ever written, at any rate there is no piece that has surpassed it, and as all members of the Dalley Company know their lines perfectly, a splendid performance is assured. Seats are now on sale, and there is already a big advance sale, consequently those who want good seats should apply at once.

DARING DASH FOR LIBERTY.

Wm. Kennedy Faced Death by Shooting and Drowning to Escape From G. P. Squad.

William Kennedy was yesterday a member of the Rock Candy Mine gang and today is the admirer of all in the Frederickton Whitechapel.

William kicked up a fuss in Mrs. Russell's house in Harrigan's Alley some days ago and on Wednesday was sentenced to two months with hard labor.

Yesterday morning he was marched to Victoria square and put to work. Between eleven and twelve o'clock he made a break for liberty. Officer Beckett chased Kennedy to the edge of the Bugtown Creek, where the ducky dropped down exhausted. Beckett had fired three shots at his man and as he approached him with the still smoking revolver in his hand, Kennedy said: "You may kill me, but I won't go back to that work." The officer started to drag Kennedy back when he stepped his feet getting away from Beckett and, jumping down the bank into the icy water, swam to the other side and disappeared.

Later he was seen to enter his home in Union Alley, which he left shortly afterwards, went out to Peter street and then to the depot, where he took the train for Fredericton.

While Beckett was chasing Kennedy, Collins, the other guard, had his hands full and only prevented a general rush for liberty by threatening to shoot the first man that moved. It was some time before matters quieted down.

THE EASTER MARKET.

The Display One of the Best for Years. While the country market was closed today to the general public, the various mall owners were busy arranging and perfecting their Easter display, which is generally admitted by all to be the best in this city for years.

The quality of the meat is of the highest order, while the variety was never greater. About the same prices prevail, with the exception that lamb and eggs are away up. Choice spring lamb brings all the way from $7 to $10 per carcass, while eggs are quoted at from 25 to 28 cents per dozen. Fancy veal is worth from 12 to 20 cents per pound, while ordinary veal is quoted from 3 to 12 cents; chickens are quoted at from 20 cents to $1.50 per pair, or 18 cents per pound. Turkeys are scarce and sell from 22 to 25 cents.

Probably the finest displays are those of S. Z. Dickson, O'Neill Bros., Geo. S. Williams, S. S. Watson, and others. The thing that one could wish for that these firms cannot supply, and a visit to their stalls will well repay any one.

OLD OFFENDERS.

The Duck Cove Hobos Have Been in Jail Before. Two of the seven hobos sent up for trial by Justice Magson of Fairville, on a charge of breaking and entering John Montague's cottage at Duck Cove, are old offenders and on the day previous to their arrest finished their time with the Rock Candy Mine crew. They are Brady and Currie and it is supposed that they went to Duck Cove with the intention of jumping a train for Montague and falling in at that meeting such pleasant companions decided to partake of the hospitality offered.

WON'T GIVE UP GUARANTEE.

With reference to the decision of the treasury board to grant $4,000 to the temperance fund and if the Exhibition Association would waive their claim to the $2,000 guarantee from the city, R. E. Engstrom said last night that the association stood pledged to have an exhibition this year, had been making preparations, and were now waiting for the grant from the province before starting active operations. Speaking for himself he did not see how they could get along with less than the full amount promised from the city. There will be a meeting of the association on Monday or Tuesday at the latest, when the whole matter will come up for discussion, and definite action will be taken.

FUNERALS TODAY.

The funeral of Mrs. Rebecca Magee, widow of late William Magee, was held at 3 o'clock from her late residence, 75 Exmouth street. Rev. Mr. Matthews of Exmouth street Methodist church, officiated and interment was made in the church of England Burying Ground.

The late Mrs. Margaret Anthony was buried at 2:30 o'clock from her late residence, Main street. The funeral service was conducted by the Rev. Mr. McKim, and interment was made in Fernhill Cemetery.

PROVINCIAL LEGISLATURE.

FREDERICTON, March 31.—In the house today the most of the time was spent in discussion of the highway bill. The section providing that tires shall be two and a half inches wide on a one and half inch axle, three inches wide for a 1 3/4 inch axle and four inches wide for a two inch axle, was stoutly opposed. All the others were passed.

Mr. Hazen gave notice that he intended to move some amendments to the bill on his third reading.

CAN'T STEAL THESE.

The newspaper boxes that the postal authorities have placed about the city are being spiked down so that no one will run away with them. The method of fastening them is simple but secure. First, a circular hole, about two inches in diameter, is cut in the asphalt sidewalk under each leg, then a hardwood stake about twelve inches long is driven into the ground to which the metal legs are securely fastened.

AN EXCITABLE FAMILY.

There has been war and there are rumors of more war in the household of John Wickham, a resident of North street. Last night there was a lively engagement, the combatants being John and his wife. Officer Crawford was called in and restored matters to something like a quiet state.

AT THE CENTRAL STATION.

Two protectionists called at the central station last night. Both very young Englishmen and wore given the desired accommodation. Two quarrelsome drunks were roped in, one in the North End and one in the city division.
