Behind the Cloud The Sun Still Shines

It matters not whether the rain falls or the sun shines if you have a

20th Century Showerproof

No man with appreciation of style and real value can place a 20th Century alongside of any other raincoat and not see the great difference in fabric, make, finish, fit and style. Every line of style abounds instantly to the favor of the 20th Century. A 20th Century for 1905 is the ideal "Springer" of the year. It being a raincoat is an incident. It is not rain coat in looks. It is a "sun or rain" coat, a wet or dry weather protector.

You need a 20th Century Showerproof today and every day.

Raincoat Prices, $8.50 to $21.50.

THE WHITE SLAVE.

A Thrilling Performance Given at York Theatre Last Night.

The Sheeley-Young Co. was greeted with another full house at the York Theatre last evening, to witness the first performance of "The White Slave," which will be the bill for the remainder of the present week.

The play, which is a melodrama of the most thrilling sort, was well received and the humorous specialties between the acts kept the audience in constant laughter.

Miss Marie Nelson took the leading role, while Mr. Mullany, who took the part of the hero, Mr. Harrington, who takes the villain's part and Mr. Drew, the comedian, also played with much acceptance. Miss D'Arcy, Miss Hartley and Mr. Taber also played the parts assigned them in a manner that left little chance for criticism.

The company, which is here for an indefinite period, will put on the "Golden Giant Mine," during the first half of next week.

AN ATTRACTIVE STORE.

The special window display at the People's Department Store, 112 Mill street, last evening attracted the attention of hundreds of passers by and all evening there was a jam in front of the door and a steady stream inside.

The artistic arrangement of the windows was duplicated by the excellent way in which a wonderful variety of goods are displayed.

Everything is clean, bright, the store, a new one, is particularly well adapted for such a business, the ceiling is high, there is lots of floor space, altogether giving a splendid opportunity for the display of a large and varied stock such as is carried.

To tell what that stock consists of would require several columns, so great is the variety. Better call and see and the surprise will be the greater when the prices are named.

WITH ADVERTISERS.

This is a time of year when every lady will be interested in C. B. Pidgeon's announcement on page one of this issue of a grand clearance sale of boots and shoes during the month of April. Shoe experts tell us of a prospective advance in shoes, but Mr. Pidgeon's shoes are certainly away down in price.

HARRY ERVIN'S FAREWELL.

Popular Telegraph Reporter Gives Up

Newspaper Work For Business Life

— A Gift For Him.

Harry Ervin, who for the past seventeen years has been one of the best known and most popular members of the newspaper row fraternity, left at noon today for New Glasgow, N. S. He has accepted a good position with the International Correspondence School at that place and will hereafter live in the Nova Scotia town.

"Dutch" is known to everyone in St. John and is well liked by all who know him. He has for the past nine years been in the employ of the C. P. R. telegraph and in that capacity was closely connected with Canterbury street. For seventeen years he has slept in the day time and labored while other people slept. He has been a good fellow to work with, even in the newspaper business, in which the desire for scoops sometimes creates strong feelings.

For some time past he has been secretary of No. 1 Salvage Corps and was a great favorite with the members of the corps.

His last night with the telegraph staff was marked by a pleasant incident. "Dutch" was called to the editor's room, and when all had gathered round, the editor presented to him a gold watch with monogram, also gold chain and monogram locket, a parting gift from the editorial and news men and business office and manager. Good words in appreciation of his past work and good wishes for his future accompanied the gift and were suitably acknowledged by him.

COUPONS FOR SMOKERS.
