

KING'S COLLEGE,

WINDSOR, N. S.

THE Governors of King's College, Windsor, have much pleasure in presenting to its numerous friends some account of their proceedings during the past Academical year.

At the annual meeting of the Associate Alumni, on the 27th June, the outgoing Governors, Hon. M. B. Almon and S. P. Fairbanks, Esq., were re-elected.

The terminal reports of the President, which have been regularly published, and will also be found in the Appendix to this Calendar, contain the usual items of information as to the studies prosecuted by the young men under the respective professors, and their relative standing at the close of each Term—to which documents the reader is referred.

It is very satisfactory to the Governors to be able to state, that the conduct of the young men has been in general exemplary, and their proficiency in the different branches of study alike creditable to themselves and their instructors, whose constant endeavor it is to make their pupils realise the great educational advantages now attainable at Windsor. Contrasting the present complete staff of Professors, and the wide range of subjects now embraced in a College course, with the state of things during the first ten or twelve years of the existence of the College, when there was but one instructor in Classics, and Sciences, and Divinity, assisted by an English teacher, there is certainly much reason for congratulation on the advanced character of the Institution, and its enlarged capabili-
