

Rooms are carpeted and furnished throughout, so that the pupil requires nothing in addition. Napkins are not provided.

The provision for the table is wholesome and abundant.

GOVERNMENT.

It is intended that the government of the Institution shall be firm without being arbitrary; that it shall be founded upon confidence in the pupils, and that its tendency shall be to teach them self control, obedience to Principles, and a conscientious regard for right.

No young lady will be allowed to retain her connection with the school, whose example tends to encourage indolence and insubordination, or whose influence in other respects is injurious.

DRESS, ETC.

Every young lady must be provided with thick boots, umbrella and overshoes.

School-room dresses should be simple and inexpensive, with high necks and long sleeves.

Every article belonging to a student should be marked with her full name before leaving home.

Very little jewelry or spending money should be at her disposal.

Carelessness and the possibility of dishonesty in servants or others, etc., make it proper that all funds should be deposited with the officer appointed for that purpose. This care involves no additional charge.

STUDENTS' CORRESPONDENCE.

Students are allowed to correspond with the home circle without any supervision; but correspondence beyond the home circle is not allowed without special permission, and letters not having this permission may be forwarded by the Principal to the parents.

On entering, a list of correspondents is to be given in, signed by the parent or guardian.

Some students have had too large a correspondence, occupying too much time, and diverting attention from school duties. This will in future be controlled.

☞ Candies, cakes, and estates generally, sent from home, usually cause the receiver one or two days' sickness, and are a most pernicious kindness. Will parents and friends think of this?
