History Of Dispute In Which Preacher In Centenary Tonight Figured In Toronto—Emerged Unscathed.

Rev. George Jackson, who is to preach at the Centenary church this evening was a few months ago a sort of storm centre in Toronto, and in Canadian Methodist generally. Mr. Jackson had come to Toronto from Edinburgh where he had been singularly successful in his own notable pastorate. He was invited to preach in one of the Toronto churches, but as he was not a member of the Canadian conference, he was nominally made assistant pastor under a superintendent. From this position he was appointed professor of the English Bible in the Theological Department of Victoria College. Meanwhile Mr. Jackson had delivered an address expressing opinions concerning the first chapters of Genesis which were unsatisfactory to Rev. Dr. Carman, general superintendent of the Methodist church. Dr. Carman sent to the press a severe letter criticising not only Mr. Jackson's views but also the way in which he entered the Canadian ministry. After that there was a good deal of controversy in which Mr. Jackson took little part. The Victoria College authorities, however, stood by their appointment. In the end a conference took place which resulted in a statement by Dr. Carman and other

ARE ESTABLISHED FINE CATTLE FARM IN ALBERT COUNTY

Importation From Ontario By Messrs. Peck—Scotch Farmer Supplied By Immigration Department, Manager.

That the immigration policy of the Hazen administration is producing results beneficial to the province is well illustrated by a large stock farm that is being established at Hillsboro, Albert county, by Mr. J. L. Peck, of that place and Mr. H. B. Peck, of this city. It had been the intention of Messrs. Peck, who own a large tract of land in the vicinity of Hillsboro, to start a farm of this kind for some time. The plan was to import cattle from Ontario and fatten them on the rich pastures and fine marsh hay for the local market and for export.

The plan had not been carried out owing to the inability to obtain a man qualified to raise and care for a farm. Soon after Mr. A. B. Wilnot was appointed superintendent of immigration by the present Provincial Government, Messrs. Peck with the result that Mr. Wilnot was able to supply them with a Scotch farmer of means, Mr. Wm. McClymont by name, who was familiar with cattle raising and had come out to New Brunswick for the purpose of finding out what the country was like before deciding whether to bring out his family and settle here.

Will Add Horse Raising. On trial Messrs. Peck found out that Mr. McClymont was just the kind of man they needed to make such a farm a success, and as a result Mr. J. L. Peck left for Ontario a short time ago for the purpose of purchasing sufficient cattle to commence operations. Mr. Peck has already sent forward one carload of animals and will purchase a number more before returning home. It is the intention to have the largest stock farm in New Brunswick and next year horse raising will be added.

Not only are the Messrs. Peck well pleased with the superintendent supplied them by Mr. Wilnot, but Mr. McClymont is delighted with the conditions in New Brunswick as the following unsolicited letter shows: Hopewell Hill, Aug. 30, 1909. Mr. Wilnot, Dear Sir:—

I here take the liberty to write you to thank you for the fine place you sent me to. It is far beyond my expectations. A countryside that any person could live in all their days with churches, schools, and all that one requires which can be reached in a few minutes. I am sending for my wife and family next month. Again thanking you for your kindness, I remain Yours truly, WILLIAM McCLYMONT.

It is expected that other residents in the vicinity of Hopewell Hill will follow the lead of Messrs. Peck and engage in cattle raising on an extensive scale. SAID THREE MEN KNOCKED HIM DOWN AND KICKED HIM

Raymond Leslie Arrived At North-End Police Station In A Hurry Last Evening—Story Discredited.

Raymond Leslie, a stalwart Nova Scotian who was thought to be somewhat of a dark green broadcloth, called at the North End Police Station last evening and complained that he had been assaulted by three men on South Wilmot. Leslie stated that he had come ashore from the schooner Ida M., and had been talking to the three men on the wharf, when suddenly one of them hit him in the face with a bottle, somewhat dazed from the blow, and they had taken advantage of this to knock him down and kick him.

As soon as he could regain his feet he concluded that prudent was the better part of valor, and took to his heels. He apparently did not stop running until he reached the police station, where, owing to his condition his story met with little credence.
