

RAMBLERS DEFEAT ST. JOHN 6-2

TWO RACES ON THE ICE SATURDAY

Interesting Trotting Races at Millidgeville—"Jay Wilkes", Owned by Rose Bros., and "Paddy Banks", Winners.

There were two interesting horse races on the ice at Millidgeville Saturday afternoon and hundreds of dollars changed hands on the results.

The afternoon was an ideal one for racing and about 800 people witnessed the events.

The first race was between Rose Brothers Jay Wilkes and Kieren's Buchanan. The horses were matched for one hundred dollars a side and the betting was even.

The second race was between Paddy Banks, owned by Wm. McDonald, and Royal Pandect, owned by J. Flood. Like the first event the stake was $100 a side and the McDonald horse won the race in three straight heats.

The backers of the two defeated horses are said to be not satisfied with the result and there are good chances for another match.

While no written agreement as yet exists to guarantee the meeting, an understanding has already been reached by the negotiators.

FIRST NEWS PICTURES OF THE LANGFORD-LANG FIGHT.

What Lady Constance Witnessed

The Standard presents today as the illustrated feature of the sporting page, the first news pictures of the recent Langford-Lang fight, in the Olympic Annex, London, on Feb. 21st.

With an advantage of 6 1/2 inches in height, and 40 pounds in weight, the man from the Americas was outclassed in every department, save that of running.

It was in the sixth Lang committing the bargain foul for which he was disqualified, Langford slipped to all fours, and Lang, after appreciable hesitation, struck him on the head.

The photograph gives a good idea of the impression is the foul was deliberate, to save a knockout, as Lang was wabbling and a badly beaten man.

RAMBLERS WIN FROM LOCAL MEN

St. John's, champions of New Brunswick, won a victory on Saturday night by the Amherst Ramblers, leaders in the Nova Scotia league, by a score of 6 to 2.

The game was below the expectations of the four hundred enthusiasts. The ice was in poor condition, due to mild weather. The game, while lacking sensational play, was quite fast at times.

St. John boys played a good defense game, but were off color in their stick work. The stars of the local team were P. McAvity, Gilbert and Parker. Twaddle and Black were the conspicuous ones of the Amherst team.

The visitors play a fast game, are good skaters, aggressive and expert stick handlers. St. John did not play their usual good game, but some individual rushes and good blocking marked the locals' work.

St. John was handicapped by the absence of Art Tully and H. McAvity, two of the local stars, and McAvity and Philips were in poor condition on account of sickness, so that the local boys could not be expected to justify the expectations of the spectators; nevertheless they played a good steady game.

Play began about twenty-five minutes past eight. H. E. C. Sturdee officiated as referee and gave general satisfaction. For the first few minutes play was confined to the centre of the ice. Amherst then assumed the aggressive and made several successful rushes at St. John's goal, but were repulsed by the excellent work of the locals' defense.

St. John took a turn at rushing matters, carrying the rubber dangerously near their opponents' net. A series of off side plays took place, and the city boys threatened the Amherst goal, but Twaddle, the visitors' star rover, came to the rescue and led the play into the St. John's territory, where Pierce spent a lively few minutes diverting the Amherst shots.

An off-side play gave St. John a timely relief, and on a face-off Clawson scored the puck, and by a clever combination the locals crossed the border into the Amherst side and Gilbert landed the first goal for St. John, about twelve minutes after play began.

Twaddle, for the visitors, retaliated a few seconds afterwards, scoring a difficult goal from the side of the rink. The remainder of the first half was uneventful. P. McAvity kept the Amherst team busy blocking his rushes, and succeeding in breaking the lines about a goal, but the goal judge refused to allow the score.

With a few minutes to play Lander received the puck on a face-off, and dodging through the St. John's forwards passed to Twaddle who sent a hot one past Pierce, scoring Amherst's second point. Referee Sturdee called time out, the lively few minutes diverting the Amherst shots.

In the second half the play was faster. Amherst took the lead at a face-off and Chisholm got away with the puck and rushed it within a few yards of St. John's goal, but Mooney loomed up big on the scene and in turn went up the ice, where he came in forcible contact with J. Chisholm, and lost the rubber to Black who passed to Twaddle. The big lad shot one at Pierce, but the St. John man was in the way. Play continued around the home team's goal for some time, until Black caught the locals napping and scored a goal.

The next few minutes of play were marked by some sensational rushes by players of each team, and the work of Philips who warded off a fusillade of artillery from the opponents' ranks. Philips, whose stickwork was a feature of the game, came to the rescue and invaded the camp where Clawson made the second and final score for St. John.

A series of offside plays followed and Chisholm and Black, as a penalty, were interested spectators for three and two minutes respectively. With two opponents out time St. John had the chance of the game, but J. Chisholm settled the matter by landing the puck in the St. John net.

A dispute ensued about the save, but the goal judge decided in favor of Amherst. Three minutes remained to play, when Twaddle gained the rubber and scored the sixth and final goal of the game. The whistle sounded with the puck in St. John's territory.

RIFLEMEN WILL HAVE BUSY YEAR

The coming season promises to be an interesting one among the "sharpshooters" of the different rifle and militia clubs in St. John. There is to be a change in the form of the target and the bull's eye is to be smaller at the shorter range, which no doubt will call for greater skill on the part of the marksmen.

KEEPING AN EYE ON THE FIGHT CLUBS

New York, March 11.—There were indications today that the authorities are planning closer scrutiny of boxing bouts staged in New York City, in the so-called athletic clubs.

HARTLAND BOYS WERE TOO LIGHT

Hartland, N. B., March 11.—The basketball game between Perth and Hartland resulted in a victory for Perth with a score of 27 to 13. The northern five, supposed to hail from Perth, but really from Perth, Anderson and Fort Fairfield, were too hard a combination for the light local team to cope with.
