

Platinum Jewelry
Designs. You
combinations of Stone are not shown in any tion.
For Quality
Dealing PAGE
King Street lights assortment of these und and flat cases.
n 75c. to $3.50
and Batteries
n stock.
S, Ltd. 13 King St.
er's Ideal
bbons and Carbon Papers
Faded, Blar or Smut.
Carbon Papers for ular Purposes.
iliency and Permanence.
nt Upon Application.
84 Prince Wm. St.
EN, LIMITED,
turers of ak Tanned Leather
ata Belting
eners of Every Description.
Stock at ne 1121 St. John. N. B. ting to any printing office in production of high-grade premptly attended to.
Main 1910
Printing Co.
n, N. B.
MACKAY'S
e Spot."
otch goes 'down without a no chaser.
AY'S is a blend of finest stilled by a process which n, and sparkle and purity of springs.
w flavor, the fragrant, arodelightful "snap" are all in-eing in charred oak casks.
MACKAY'S by name and drink

$2.00 A PAIR
$5.00 Women's Laced Boot
FOR $2.00
We have a lot of Women's Patent and Gun Metal Calfskin Laced Boots with grey and sand cloth tops, pointed toes and Louis heels that we are going to offer at Two Dollars a pair to clear. That with shoes costing more every day and those goods being of the highest grade quality made, women should hasten to obtain a pair if only used as a second boot.
King Street Store
Waterbury & Rising, Limited

$6 PORTRAIT FREE
FOR A COLORED PICTURE
INTERESTING CONTEST
Here is a chance to get a framed beautiful portrait of yourself, measuring 11x14, valued at six dollars, which The Conlon Studio, of King street are kindly giving as first prize in the above contest. Take any picture out of a newspaper, or magazine, and carefully color, or paint it in the colors which you think best. You may select any subject you desire, but the coloring must be your own unaided work. To the boy or girl, not over fifteen years of age, whose work is considered most neatly and correctly done, the above mentioned splendid and valuable prize will be awarded. The sender of the second in order of merit will receive a lovely story book. All attempts must be accompanied by the usual coupon, correctly filled up, and reach this office not later than April 19th, addressed to:
UNCLE DICK, THE STANDARD, ST. JOHN, N. B.
whose decision must be considered as final.

CAN YOU FIND THE NAMES OF FLOWERS?
This competition is similar to the recent Tree competition. In each paragraph the name of a flower will be given, but on this occasion the name is spelled backwards; that is to say from right to left, as in this example: "Well, sir, I think all able young men should enlist." Here you will find that the words "air" and "I" read backwards, make the word "iris", which, of course, is the flower meant. Try and find the names of the other flowers in these paragraphs:
1. He was one of the first to don khaki. Is he sorry for it?—oh dear no!
2. After she had taken the lid off, a delicious stew was exposed to view.
3. "I know it is hard to bear, but do not fret," said the girl to her companion, kindly.
4. The tale was one concerning great bravery; no episode of the war could be more interesting.
5. A bleak, nipping wind was blowing during our snowshoe tramp.
6. "Bring the paraffin oil, Edna dear, it is time to light the lamps," she said.
7. Directly she left the farm her health began to fail. Had she remained at home she would probably not be now sick.
8. The team won the match by good combination work and by snappy play.
The contest is open to any boy or girl not over fifteen years of age, and each entry must be accompanied by one of the usual coupons correctly filled in. To the senders of the two most correct, and neatly written out list of flowers, I shall award beautiful story books. All attempts must reach this office by April 12th addressed to:
UNCLE DICK, THE STANDARD, ST. JOHN, N. B.
whose decision must be considered as final.

HOTEL ARRIVALS.
Royal.
H W Livingston, Toronto; C S Everett, St Andrews; T F Sanborn, N.Y.; R P Bland, Fredericton; J A Henderson, London; A Kean, Montreal; A W Brown, Portland; R J McGregor, South Lincoln; S T Duchs, F G Lancaster, J Bizard, R D Preston, F Bodley, W MacKinnon, S J McCruider, Montreal; W E Bell, Moncton; H W Dodwell, Halifax; Mr and Mrs. A Ballantyne, Windsor; L H Bliss, Fredericton; Mrs W A Hickson, Miss Ritchie, Newcastle; G B MacKay, Sussex; H C Bonham, Lancaster; R Bonnesen, I L Hobden, Toronto; D Creighton, Newcastle; F J Bruce, New York; W J Gard, Amherst; W A Cooke, Montreal; W D Moreson and wife, Mrs A & Alby, Charlottetown; J A Godin, Montreal; B Courtney, Toronto.
Victoria.
E M Archibald, Moncton; D J Shea, Fredericton; E R Reid and wife, Granville; J S Nickerson, Moncton; P H Moore, do; E P Gillespie, do; W Kennedy, Debec; N E Guitelin, Brownville; F Lister, McAdam; E

INTEREST IN CITY POLLING INCREASING
Many Discus Probable Results—Official Primary Figures.
The official returns for candidates for commissioners when announced at City Hall, yesterday, showed little change from the figures published in the morning newspapers. There was much discussion about the city yesterday as to the outlook in the elections on Easter Monday. Some of those who visited City Hall predicted that Mayor Frink would be re-elected with G. Fred Fisher and Commissioner McLellan as commissioners. Others thought R. T. Hayes would be elected as mayor and that either Arthur W. Sharp or James L. Sugrue might be able to displace Mr. McLellan.
The election of Mr. Fisher seemed to be generally conceded, as he led the poll yesterday. After all nearly every election has its surprises.
Commissioner Potts Cheerful.
Commissioner Potts, who was defeated, was at the hall yesterday and he was not downhearted. "We all could not have been elected," said he. "Some of us had to be left." He admitted, however, that he was surprised at his defeat. His first feeling, he said, "was one of relief at being freed from the onerous duties of the office. He had not been anxious to run this time, but he had felt it his duty to do so, in order that he might have the opportunity of completing the work which he had undertaken. During his two years in office he had antagonized many persons by the methods he had adopted to serve the citizens and there had not yet been time to show the benefits which would result from the course he had followed. He felt that he had served the citizens to the best of his ability and he was sure that he never had worked harder in his life than he had for the last two years. His chief regret in leaving office was that he would not be able to carry out his policies to a successful conclusion."
Commissioner McLellan.
Commissioner McLellan expressed gratification at the large vote he had polled, without any organization except the voluntary work of some friends. He knew that he had many things to contend with, notably the influence of individuals and corporations which he had antagonized in his efforts to serve the city and, under the circumstances, he was delighted to find his vote so large. He said that the utmost confidence in his friends and anticipated a much larger vote in the future.
G. Fred Fisher.
G. Fred Fisher expressed pleasure at the large vote polled. He thought that it was a healthy sign of the interest of the people in civic matters.
Arthur W. Sharp said that the only comment he had to make was to express his sincere appreciation of the efforts of his friends on his behalf.
The correct totals are as follows:
Fisher 2,369
McLellan 2,387
Sharp 2,382
Sugrue 1,729
Potts 1,663
Bagles 104
For commission 4,989
For ward system 1,825

ST. JOHN WOMAN MOURNED AS DEAD 22 YEARS ALIVE
Truth Revealed by Chance Meeting of Friends in City Market—Reunion of Mother and Daughter Separated More than Thirty Years Results.
Mourning as dead by relatives for nearly a quarter of a century a St. John woman, still in the flesh and enjoying fairly good health, has been "discovered" by a daughter. As the two had not seen each other for more than thirty years it can readily be surmised that the union was somewhat out of the ordinary. It is probable that a case as remarkable never came to light in St. John, especially as mother and daughter have never lived more than 100 miles apart, and on several occasions the daughter has been in the city without even having the remotest idea that her parent was in the land of the living, and in St. John. The old time-worn adage that truth is stranger than fiction, was certainly verified again when the wonderful story of a severed family was revealed.
Lives on Brussels Street.
The woman who was mourned as dead for so many years is Mrs. George Brady, of Brussels street. The daughter, to whom she was reunited is Mrs. James Crossman, of 150 Albert street, Moncton.
A Standard reporter heard of the remarkable situation and the happy developments a day or two ago, while walking up King street, but was somewhat skeptical, as most any person would be, but concluded, after mature deliberation, that the story would bear "looking into." After considerable enquiry and careful investigation complete confirmation was forthcoming.
Mrs. Brady, now a woman of about seventy years, was born in Elgin, Albert county. When a young woman she married William Garland, a member of a family prominent throughout that county. Her own relatives were also well known in Elgin and vicinity. After the death of her first husband the immediate family became separated. Mrs. Garland, now Mrs. Brady, removing to St. John.
She came here thirty-two years ago. For several years her Albert county relatives knew where she was, but eventually they lost track of her. Eventually she married George Brady, and the change in her name naturally was a barrier to later attempts by relatives to locate her.
Twenty-two years ago there appeared a brief notice in the Albert county Maple Leaf, a weekly newspaper of Hillsboro, in the east of the Moncton papers, announcing the death of William Garland. Mrs. Brady's daughter, Mrs. Crossman and other relatives read the notice and supposed that the

CITY COUNCIL HAS BRIEF SESSION
Business Transacted all of a Routine Nature.
The city council was in session just twelve minutes yesterday. Nothing but routine business was transacted. Three recommendations made by Commissioner Russell were adopted unanimously, as follows:
1. Your commissioner recommends that the revenues derivable from the North and South Market wharves and piers, announcing the death of William Garland. Mrs. Brady's daughter, Mrs. Crossman and other relatives read the notice and supposed that the

PERSONAL
E. M. Archibald, J. S. Nickerson, E. P. Gillespie, F. H. Moore and C. Sugrue, all of Moncton were guests of the Victoria yesterday.
A. Sherwood and D. J. Shear, of Fredericton, were also at the Victoria yesterday.
Oran G. Kelley, of Fredericton, was at the Dufferin yesterday.
S. C. Huettig, of Sussex, was at the Dufferin yesterday.
W. E. Bell, of Moncton, was at the Royal yesterday.
L. H. Bliss and James H. Crockett, of Fredericton, were guests of the Royal yesterday.
Mrs. W. A. Hickson and Mrs. Ritchie, of Newcastle, were at the Royal yesterday.
Rev. C. J. McLaughlin, of Debec, was a guest of the Royal yesterday.
Gordon B. McKay, of Sussex, was at the Royal yesterday.
J. D. Creighton, of Newcastle, was K-Bill To Amend by aCmHt 8 at the Royal yesterday.
FERNHILL CEMETERY COMPANY ELECT OFFICERS.
The directors of Fernhill Cemetery Company appointed at the annual meeting met yesterday afternoon to elect their officers and committees for the ensuing year. Judge Forbes was elected president; Col. E. T. Sturdee, vice-president. The executive committee is composed of Judge Forbes, R. W. W. Frink, Dr. James Christie, Peter Campbell, John K. Schofield and J. A. Lundy. The lot committee, Col. E. T. Sturdee, E. L. Ristig, George Kimball, C. E. Scammell, F. E. Hanington, Geo. W. Ketchum and Dr. James Christie. The superintendent and his assistant and the secretary-treasurer were reappointed.
The matter of rules and regulations for the military and naval lot was referred to the lot committee to report back to the board.

WILL OWN COSY HOMES JUST OUT OF TOWN
Many Buy Home Sites on Easy Terms at Lovely Glen Falls, the Popular Suburb Just Beyond the City.
The growing tendency towards owning a home within easy reach of the city is clearly evident from a remark made to The Standard by the manager of the Coldbrook Realty and Development Company, Limited, who stated that purchasers of Glen Falls lots had secured their holdings for home-building purposes and not for speculation.
Mr. Pugsley also drew attention to the fact that Glen Falls offers, already, many modern conveniences to the home-seeker, including a splendidly maintained fifteen-minute car service, a summer and a thirty-minute service during the winter. The fine, modern supply system of spring water which covers a large part of the property will be still further extended, and the sewerage system now being installed is of the most approved type and will, it is expected, be rapidly completed.
Picturesque woodland paths are being further beautified by rustic bridges spanning brook and streamlet, and other similar improvements are among plans for the coming summer.
For the little ones Glen Falls offers an abundance of fresh air and sunshine, with the advantage, too, of a good school close at hand.
The terms of purchase are exceptionally easy, and Mr. Pugsley will be pleased to furnish any desired information and to arrange a trip to Glen Falls in one of the company's automobiles.
MARRIAGES.
A pretty wedding took place at Albert Mines, on Wednesday evening, when Miss Hilda Maitland, daughter of Mrs. Wm. Ester, was united in marriage to Clarence Woodworth, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Woodworth. The ceremony was performed by Rev. R. B. Burt under an arch of evergreen, and pink roses, in the presence of over fifty guests. The bride was dressed in pale blue silk, with satin trimmings of same shade. Her sister, Miss Leona Maitland was bridesmaid, and Archie Maitland was groomsmen. The bride was the recipient of many useful presents, in silver, linen, etc.
Much happiness and prosperity is extended to them by their many friends.

DAVID HEYWOOD TELLS OF EASY TIME AT FRONT
Former Standard Man Now With Canadians Says They Are Well Fed and Amused
A letter has just been received from David Heywood, formerly of The Standard staff, who was one of the first to enlist in St. John, and who is now in the trenches "somewhere in France." Private Heywood says he is feeling fine and looking forward for the final go at the Germans. "I heard the French have knocked the d— out of them at Verdun, and I guess it is up to us and the Belgians to have a go next; the sooner the better, for I do wish to see the finish. I am confident we shall win at the next general advance, for we have the boys now, also the guns, and the weather is much better. With good weather we will certainly be on the move. To be where I am now you would not think there was a war on as everything is so quiet. The people are working in the fields and the birds chirping, with an occasional boom of a gun in the distance. The boys are making their way in to an entertainment, or in for a glass of French beer. We get a good rest out of the trenches, just keep our rifles clean and a little physical drill to keep us fit.
The barns we are in we keep nice and clean, and it is fine to have a flop on the clean straw. It will be much better though to have a bed to get into some time, but I must not think of that yet for a while, although I feel that I could do with a mouth in bed. Taking everything into consideration we are not so badly off as we get wholesome food and a bath on coming out of the trenches. They give us cigarettes and tobacco and we have an occasional concert in the 'estaminet' when we have 'Le Blanc Vin' (white wine in French), two pence a glass; it is great stuff to make the boys warble. I am one of the birds who do not do much damage, only caused us to do a little extra work at the night, but our guns simply peppered them for it. I expected an attack but I think Mr. Fritz was wise for we were all ready, and if he had come out most probably I would have got that German helmet I promised you. I see the Germans are wearing them again now. It is the Prussian Guards and Brandenburgers who wear the helmet, the Saxons and Bavarians wear the flat one, but anyhow if I don't land a helmet for you I have a cap for you. They relieve each regiment so often that we don't always know what bunch we are up against and we don't care which as long as we get the best of them, but I must say that the Saxons are the best. When we are in the trenches against them they hardly send a shot over, and anyhow they are brave and are sports, and all the Canadian boys will say so.
"It is only when we give them a volley, or keep continually sniping at them, that they will retaliate, but the other side are so good, just a lot of big 'washouts', as our boys call them, must also tell you that I am some class on French now. I am sending you a card, so if I am wrong in my French excuse me, for the madamelle at the restaurant to blame. We are all now parlie voiling at the diangone, and it would not surprise me if some of you French scholars will be asking me for tips in French when I get back to St. John.
"We have had a lot of French troops where I was and they looked very nice with their red pants on and some in light blue, they made us feel much brighter as they were all happy and saying 'Comment allez-vous.' Well, if you were here as you could see about a dozen aeroplanes sailing over toward Fritz, God knows whether they will return or not, but anyway if you were here you would be able to write a little story on it.
"Well, our tea is up, the usual bread and jam, so I must not miss it, and then I will finish this letter. It seems a pity to see the refugees around here, but the inhabitants make them as comfortable as possible. All the houses are knocked down by the German shells, also the churches, but not just that, but every mile or so you can see what the people call shrines, with just a few church ornaments in, and even these the Germans have tried to destroy.
Well I guess you are pretty well fed up on this long letter, and don't forget to write me a letter occasionally, as it is very acceptable to a poor devil in the trenches, so good bye and God bless you all.
Your old chum,
DAN.
Col. MacLaren Honored.
Col. Murray MacLaren has been honored by King George, who conferred the decoration of Commander of the Order of St. Michael and St. George upon him. The ceremony occurred last Saturday at Buckingham Palace. Dr. MacLaren was honored for his valuable services in the Canadian Army Medical Corps.
Red Cross Tea Postponed.
The Centenary Red Cross tea, advertised to be held at the home of Mrs. W. B. Tennant, April 12th, has been indefinitely postponed.

DAVID HEYWOOD TELLS OF EASY TIME AT FRONT
Former Standard Man Now With Canadians Says They Are Well Fed and Amused
A letter has just been received from David Heywood, formerly of The Standard staff, who was one of the first to enlist in St. John, and who is now in the trenches "somewhere in France." Private Heywood says he is feeling fine and looking forward for the final go at the Germans. "I heard the French have knocked the d— out of them at Verdun, and I guess it is up to us and the Belgians to have a go next; the sooner the better, for I do wish to see the finish. I am confident we shall win at the next general advance, for we have the boys now, also the guns, and the weather is much better. With good weather we will certainly be on the move. To be where I am now you would not think there was a war on as everything is so quiet. The people are working in the fields and the birds chirping, with an occasional boom of a gun in the distance. The boys are making their way in to an entertainment, or in for a glass of French beer. We get a good rest out of the trenches, just keep our rifles clean and a little physical drill to keep us fit.
The barns we are in we keep nice and clean, and it is fine to have a flop on the clean straw. It will be much better though to have a bed to get into some time, but I must not think of that yet for a while, although I feel that I could do with a mouth in bed. Taking everything into consideration we are not so badly off as we get wholesome food and a bath on coming out of the trenches. They give us cigarettes and tobacco and we have an occasional concert in the 'estaminet' when we have 'Le Blanc Vin' (white wine in French), two pence a glass; it is great stuff to make the boys warble. I am one of the birds who do not do much damage, only caused us to do a little extra work at the night, but our guns simply peppered them for it. I expected an attack but I think Mr. Fritz was wise for we were all ready, and if he had come out most probably I would have got that German helmet I promised you. I see the Germans are wearing them again now. It is the Prussian Guards and Brandenburgers who wear the helmet, the Saxons and Bavarians wear the flat one, but anyhow if I don't land a helmet for you I have a cap for you. They relieve each regiment so often that we don't always know what bunch we are up against and we don't care which as long as we get the best of them, but I must say that the Saxons are the best. When we are in the trenches against them they hardly send a shot over, and anyhow they are brave and are sports, and all the Canadian boys will say so.
"It is only when we give them a volley, or keep continually sniping at them, that they will retaliate, but the other side are so good, just a lot of big 'washouts', as our boys call them, must also tell you that I am some class on French now. I am sending you a card, so if I am wrong in my French excuse me, for the madamelle at the restaurant to blame. We are all now parlie voiling at the diangone, and it would not surprise me if some of you French scholars will be asking me for tips in French when I get back to St. John.
"We have had a lot of French troops where I was and they looked very nice with their red pants on and some in light blue, they made us feel much brighter as they were all happy and saying 'Comment allez-vous.' Well, if you were here as you could see about a dozen aeroplanes sailing over toward Fritz, God knows whether they will return or not, but anyway if you were here you would be able to write a little story on it.
"Well, our tea is up, the usual bread and jam, so I must not miss it, and then I will finish this letter. It seems a pity to see the refugees around here, but the inhabitants make them as comfortable as possible. All the houses are knocked down by the German shells, also the churches, but not just that, but every mile or so you can see what the people call shrines, with just a few church ornaments in, and even these the Germans have tried to destroy.
Well I guess you are pretty well fed up on this long letter, and don't forget to write me a letter occasionally, as it is very acceptable to a poor devil in the trenches, so good bye and God bless you all.
Your old chum,
DAN.
Col. MacLaren Honored.
Col. Murray MacLaren has been honored by King George, who conferred the decoration of Commander of the Order of St. Michael and St. George upon him. The ceremony occurred last Saturday at Buckingham Palace. Dr. MacLaren was honored for his valuable services in the Canadian Army Medical Corps.
Red Cross Tea Postponed.
The Centenary Red Cross tea, advertised to be held at the home of Mrs. W. B. Tennant, April 12th, has been indefinitely postponed.

DAVID HEYWOOD TELLS OF EASY TIME AT FRONT
Former Standard Man Now With Canadians Says They Are Well Fed and Amused
A letter has just been received from David Heywood, formerly of The Standard staff, who was one of the first to enlist in St. John, and who is now in the trenches "somewhere in France." Private Heywood says he is feeling fine and looking forward for the final go at the Germans. "I heard the French have knocked the d— out of them at Verdun, and I guess it is up to us and the Belgians to have a go next; the sooner the better, for I do wish to see the finish. I am confident we shall win at the next general advance, for we have the boys now, also the guns, and the weather is much better. With good weather we will certainly be on the move. To be where I am now you would not think there was a war on as everything is so quiet. The people are working in the fields and the birds chirping, with an occasional boom of a gun in the distance. The boys are making their way in to an entertainment, or in for a glass of French beer. We get a good rest out of the trenches, just keep our rifles clean and a little physical drill to keep us fit.
The barns we are in we keep nice and clean, and it is fine to have a flop on the clean straw. It will be much better though to have a bed to get into some time, but I must not think of that yet for a while, although I feel that I could do with a mouth in bed. Taking everything into consideration we are not so badly off as we get wholesome food and a bath on coming out of the trenches. They give us cigarettes and tobacco and we have an occasional concert in the 'estaminet' when we have 'Le Blanc Vin' (white wine in French), two pence a glass; it is great stuff to make the boys warble. I am one of the birds who do not do much damage, only caused us to do a little extra work at the night, but our guns simply peppered them for it. I expected an attack but I think Mr. Fritz was wise for we were all ready, and if he had come out most probably I would have got that German helmet I promised you. I see the Germans are wearing them again now. It is the Prussian Guards and Brandenburgers who wear the helmet, the Saxons and Bavarians wear the flat one, but anyhow if I don't land a helmet for you I have a cap for you. They relieve each regiment so often that we don't always know what bunch we are up against and we don't care which as long as we get the best of them, but I must say that the Saxons are the best. When we are in the trenches against them they hardly send a shot over, and anyhow they are brave and are sports, and all the Canadian boys will say so.
"It is only when we give them a volley, or keep continually sniping at them, that they will retaliate, but the other side are so good, just a lot of big 'washouts', as our boys call them, must also tell you that I am some class on French now. I am sending you a card, so if I am wrong in my French excuse me, for the madamelle at the restaurant to blame. We are all now parlie voiling at the diangone, and it would not surprise me if some of you French scholars will be asking me for tips in French when I get back to St. John.
"We have had a lot of French troops where I was and they looked very nice with their red pants on and some in light blue, they made us feel much brighter as they were all happy and saying 'Comment allez-vous.' Well, if you were here as you could see about a dozen aeroplanes sailing over toward Fritz, God knows whether they will return or not, but anyway if you were here you would be able to write a little story on it.
"Well, our tea is up, the usual bread and jam, so I must not miss it, and then I will finish this letter. It seems a pity to see the refugees around here, but the inhabitants make them as comfortable as possible. All the houses are knocked down by the German shells, also the churches, but not just that, but every mile or so you can see what the people call shrines, with just a few church ornaments in, and even these the Germans have tried to destroy.
Well I guess you are pretty well fed up on this long letter, and don't forget to write me a letter occasionally, as it is very acceptable to a poor devil in the trenches, so good bye and God bless you all.
Your old chum,
DAN.
Col. MacLaren Honored.
Col. Murray MacLaren has been honored by King George, who conferred the decoration of Commander of the Order of St. Michael and St. George upon him. The ceremony occurred last Saturday at Buckingham Palace. Dr. MacLaren was honored for his valuable services in the Canadian Army Medical Corps.
Red Cross Tea Postponed.
The Centenary Red Cross tea, advertised to be held at the home of Mrs. W. B. Tennant, April 12th, has been indefinitely postponed.

DAVID HEYWOOD TELLS OF EASY TIME AT FRONT
Former Standard Man Now With Canadians Says They Are Well Fed and Amused
A letter has just been received from David Heywood, formerly of The Standard staff, who was one of the first to enlist in St. John, and who is now in the trenches "somewhere in France." Private Heywood says he is feeling fine and looking forward for the final go at the Germans. "I heard the French have knocked the d— out of them at Verdun, and I guess it is up to us and the Belgians to have a go next; the sooner the better, for I do wish to see the finish. I am confident we shall win at the next general advance, for we have the boys now, also the guns, and the weather is much better. With good weather we will certainly be on the move. To be where I am now you would not think there was a war on as everything is so quiet. The people are working in the fields and the birds chirping, with an occasional boom of a gun in the distance. The boys are making their way in to an entertainment, or in for a glass of French beer. We get a good rest out of the trenches, just keep our rifles clean and a little physical drill to keep us fit.
The barns we are in we keep nice and clean, and it is fine to have a flop on the clean straw. It will be much better though to have a bed to get into some time, but I must not think of that yet for a while, although I feel that I could do with a mouth in bed. Taking everything into consideration we are not so badly off as we get wholesome food and a bath on coming out of the trenches. They give us cigarettes and tobacco and we have an occasional concert in the 'estaminet' when we have 'Le Blanc Vin' (white wine in French), two pence a glass; it is great stuff to make the boys warble. I am one of the birds who do not do much damage, only caused us to do a little extra work at the night, but our guns simply peppered them for it. I expected an attack but I think Mr. Fritz was wise for we were all ready, and if he had come out most probably I would have got that German helmet I promised you. I see the Germans are wearing them again now. It is the Prussian Guards and Brandenburgers who wear the helmet, the Saxons and Bavarians wear the flat one, but anyhow if I don't land a helmet for you I have a cap for you. They relieve each regiment so often that we don't always know what bunch we are up against and we don't care which as long as we get the best of them, but I must say that the Saxons are the best. When we are in the trenches against them they hardly send a shot over, and anyhow they are brave and are sports, and all the Canadian boys will say so.
"It is only when we give them a volley, or keep continually sniping at them, that they will retaliate, but the other side are so good, just a lot of big 'washouts', as our boys call them, must also tell you that I am some class on French now. I am sending you a card, so if I am wrong in my French excuse me, for the madamelle at the restaurant to blame. We are all now parlie voiling at the diangone, and it would not surprise me if some of you French scholars will be asking me for tips in French when I get back to St. John.
"We have had a lot of French troops where I was and they looked very nice with their red pants on and some in light blue, they made us feel much brighter as they were all happy and saying 'Comment allez-vous.' Well, if you were here as you could see about a dozen aeroplanes sailing over toward Fritz, God knows whether they will return or not, but anyway if you were here you would be able to write a little story on it.
"Well, our tea is up, the usual bread and jam, so I must not miss it, and then I will finish this letter. It seems a pity to see the refugees around here, but the inhabitants make them as comfortable as possible. All the houses are knocked down by the German shells, also the churches, but not just that, but every mile or so you can see what the people call shrines, with just a few church ornaments in, and even these the Germans have tried to destroy.
Well I guess you are pretty well fed up on this long letter, and don't forget to write me a letter occasionally, as it is very acceptable to a poor devil in the trenches, so good bye and God bless you all.
Your old chum,
DAN.
Col. MacLaren Honored.
Col. Murray MacLaren has been honored by King George, who conferred the decoration of Commander of the Order of St. Michael and St. George upon him. The ceremony occurred last Saturday at Buckingham Palace. Dr. MacLaren was honored for his valuable services in the Canadian Army Medical Corps.
Red Cross Tea Postponed.
The Centenary Red Cross tea, advertised to be held at the home of Mrs. W. B. Tennant, April 12th, has been indefinitely postponed.

DAVID HEYWOOD TELLS OF EASY TIME AT FRONT
Former Standard Man Now With Canadians Says They Are Well Fed and Amused
A letter has just been received from David Heywood, formerly of The Standard staff, who was one of the first to enlist in St. John, and who is now in the trenches "somewhere in France." Private Heywood says he is feeling fine and looking forward for the final go at the Germans. "I heard the French have knocked the d— out of them at Verdun, and I guess it is up to us and the Belgians to have a go next; the sooner the better, for I do wish to see the finish. I am confident we shall win at the next general advance, for we have the boys now, also the guns, and the weather is much better. With good weather we will certainly be on the move. To be where I am now you would not think there was a war on as everything is so quiet. The people are working in the fields and the birds chirping, with an occasional boom of a gun in the distance. The boys are making their way in to an entertainment, or in for a glass of French beer. We get a good rest out of the trenches, just keep our rifles clean and a little physical drill to keep us fit.
The barns we are in we keep nice and clean, and it is fine to have a flop on the clean straw. It will be much better though to have a bed to get into some time, but I must not think of that yet for a while, although I feel that I could do with a mouth in bed. Taking everything into consideration we are not so badly off as we get wholesome food and a bath on coming out of the trenches. They give us cigarettes and tobacco and we have an occasional concert in the 'estaminet' when we have 'Le Blanc Vin' (white wine in French), two pence a glass; it is great stuff to make the boys warble. I am one of the birds who do not do much damage, only caused us to do a little extra work at the night, but our guns simply peppered them for it. I expected an attack but I think Mr. Fritz was wise for we were all ready, and if he had come out most probably I would have got that German helmet I promised you. I see the Germans are wearing them again now. It is the Prussian Guards and Brandenburgers who wear the helmet, the Saxons and Bavarians wear the flat one, but anyhow if I don't land a helmet for you I have a cap for you. They relieve each regiment so often that we don't always know what bunch we are up against and we don't care which as long as we get the best of them, but I must say that the Saxons are the best. When we are in the trenches against them they hardly send a shot over, and anyhow they are brave and are sports, and all the Canadian boys will say so.
"It is only when we give them a volley, or keep continually sniping at them, that they will retaliate, but the other side are so good, just a lot of big 'washouts', as our boys call them, must also tell you that I am some class on French now. I am sending you a card, so if I am wrong in my French excuse me, for the madamelle at the restaurant to blame. We are all now parlie voiling at the diangone, and it would not surprise me if some of you French scholars will be asking me for tips in French when I get back to St. John.
"We have had a lot of French troops where I was and they looked very nice with their red pants on and some in light blue, they made us feel much brighter as they were all happy and saying 'Comment allez-vous.' Well, if you were here as you could see about a dozen aeroplanes sailing over toward Fritz, God knows whether they will return or not, but anyway if you were here you would be able to write a little story on it.
"Well, our tea is up, the usual bread and jam, so I must not miss it, and then I will finish this letter. It seems a pity to see the refugees around here, but the inhabitants make them as comfortable as possible. All the houses are knocked down by the German shells, also the churches, but not just that, but every mile or so you can see what the people call shrines, with just a few church ornaments in, and even these the Germans have tried to destroy.
Well I guess you are pretty well fed up on this long letter, and don't forget to write me a letter occasionally, as it is very acceptable to a poor devil in the trenches, so good bye and God bless you all.
Your old chum,
DAN.
Col. MacLaren Honored.
Col. Murray MacLaren has been honored by King George, who conferred the decoration of Commander of the Order of St. Michael and St. George upon him. The ceremony occurred last Saturday at Buckingham Palace. Dr. MacLaren was honored for his valuable services in the Canadian Army Medical Corps.
Red Cross Tea Postponed.
The Centenary Red Cross tea, advertised to be held at the home of Mrs. W. B. Tennant, April 12th, has been indefinitely postponed.

For Strength, Purity, Flavor
in Bread, Buns and Biscuit, hundreds of householders prefer LaTour Flour
milled by special Sanitary Process, from Cheicest Manitoba Hard Spring Wheat Ask Your Grocer For

Painless Dentistry
We extract teeth free of pain, only 25c. We do all kinds of dentistry. Call and see us. No charge for consultation.
Boston Dental Parlers
527 Main St. 245 Union St.
Cor. Brussels. Phone 683.
Open 9 a. m. until 9 p. m.
DR. J. D. MAHER, Proprietor

Established 1894.
NOTE THIS!—We are the only REGISTERED OPTOMETRISTS in New Brunswick. We are registered under the laws of Province of Quebec and are legally qualified to examine eyesight.
D. BOYANER
Two Stores—
38 Dock St. 111 Charlotte St.

With the Y. M. C. A. Boys.
The regular monthly meeting of the Boys' Work Division of the Y. M. C. A. was held last night with C. Cross in the chair. The secretary's report showed the work to be in a flourishing condition. The total attendance for the month was 1,615, average per day, 60; total membership in the boys' division, 258. Fourteen Bible study groups had held 57 meetings with an average attendance of 8. Four Sunday morning meetings had been held with good attendance at each one. The numerous activities in the educational, physical and social departments had been very successful. Plans were discussed for an early spring and summer opening and some definite arrangements for the summer camp would be announced at the next meeting.
Y. M. C. A. Debating Club.
The Y. M. C. A. Debating Club held its last meeting of the season last night in the form of a banquet at Vanamakers'. Dinner was served in the Japanese room and a most enjoyable evening was spent by all present. President Knowles was in the chair and acted as toastmaster and proposed the following toasts: The Kings, with musical accompaniment; The People of the United States, in compliment to the American members of the club, responded to by Mr. Blake; Canada's Fighting Forces, responded to by Mr. Willett; The Club, responded to by Mr. Bailey. After the formal toasts a sing-song was indulged in and the singing of the National Anthem brought a most enjoyable meeting to a close.
Soldiers' Comforts.
The monthly business meeting of the Soldiers' Comfort Association will be held Wednesday, April 12th, at 3 p. m., in the Centenary church parlour.

Could Not Stand The Least Excitement.
Was So Weak and Run Down.
Many women become run down and worn out by their household cares and duties never ending, and sooner or later find themselves with shattered nerves and weak hearts.
When the heart becomes weak, and the nerves unstrung, it is impossible for a woman to look after her household or social duties. The least little exertion or excitement leaves her in an exhausted condition, and not fit to do anything.
On the first sign of any weakness of the heart or nerves, you will be wise if you start to take Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills.
This remedy will act directly on the disordered heart making it beat strong and regular, and will also invigorate and strengthen the nerves so as to make them steady and firm.
Mrs. J. A. Williams, Tillsonburg, Ont., writes: "I cannot speak too highly of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills. I suffered greatly with my nerves. I was so weak and run down, I could not stand the least excitement of any kind. I believe your Heart and Nerve Pills to be a valuable remedy for all sufferers from nervous trouble."
Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are the original remedy for all heart and nerve troubles. Price 50 cents per box, 3 boxes for $1.25, at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.