Impressive Service At Trinity Church

Memorial Dedicated to Those of Church Who Served and Fell in War.

A service of intense solemnity was held yesterday morning in Trinity church when the new choir stalls, which have been given to the church by members of the congregation in memory of those who served and fell in the great war, were dedicated. The processional hymn was "How Bright These Glorious Spirits Shine," after which Rev. Canon Armstrong read for the opening sentences of the "Soleils of the Righteous" and the "Hand of God," from the Book of Wisdom. Special Psalms and lessons were read, Canon Armstrong then proceeded to the sanctuary where he read the names of those who gave their lives overseas. The Last Post was sounded by Sergeant Singer, and the hymn "For All the Saints," sung. After reading the inscription on the brass plate the dedicatory prayer was said.

Feeling Tribute.
The inscription is as follows: "To the Glory of God and in memory of those from this church who served, nineteen of whom fell in the Great War 1914-1918. Released from earthly toil and strife, With Thee is hidden still their life."

In his sermon the rector spoke of the lives and our duty towards them. He likened the sacrifice of these men to the sacrifice of Christ, and illustrated his points with many beautiful quotations.

Included in the music was a solo by Miss Louise Knight, an anthem, "The Souls of the Righteous," by Tertius Noble, and a special hymn, "Oh Valiant Hearts Who to Their Glory Came."

At the evening service Canon Armstrong spoke of All Saints' Day, and drew from the story of David and the three men who brought him water from the well at Bethlehem, a lesson of the memorial the sacrifice of soldiers should be to all and how their heroic act should be an example to those that shall come after them.

Those Who Gave Life.
Those who gave their lives from Trinity church are as follows: Edward W. Bean, James I. Barie, William S. Hare, James W. Holly, Frederick C. Jones, C. E. Kingdom Jones, P. Harold Ledford, Herbert D. McDonald, M. C. Ross MacKay, Frank P. McKenna, Clarence L. Mills, Thomas V. Nickerson, Reginald F. Pascook, Francis Skinner, C. Harold Smith, D. Lionel Teed, M. C. Hugh Marner, Fred, John Webb.

All the members of the congregation joined in the tribute and the stalls which correspond exactly with the other panelling in the chancel are a very handsome addition to the church.

HAYES' MAJORITY INCREASED TO 30

Result of Recount in City Adds Eight More to His Lead.

The recount of the city votes cast on October 8, which was concluded Friday afternoon, adds eight votes to R. T. Hayes' majority over L. P. D. Tilley. In the returning officers' count as submitted on October 13, Mr. Hayes polled 537 votes and Mr. Tilley 515. The recount gives Mr. Hayes 561 and Mr. Tilley 551, a majority of 30 for Mr. Hayes. The figures are as follows:

Name	Dec. day	Recount
Walter E. Foster	6945	6105
William F. Roberts	5854	5809
Robert T. Hayes	5537	5681
William E. Scully	6517	6539
L. P. D. Tilley	5115	5571
J. Roy Campbell	6358	6405
Frank L. Potts	5244	5287
James Lewis	5415	5465

The figures were submitted to Judge Armstrong Saturday morning at eleven o'clock. They filled two large sheets. His honor wrote at the bottom of the second sheet: "I certify the figures on this and the foregoing sheet to be the result of the recount and final addition in the election in the city of St. John for the local legislature."

"J. R. ARMSSTRONG, Judge of the St. John county court," October 30, 1926. Sheriff A. A. Wilson then read the figures as handed to him by Judge Armstrong with his honor's signed declaration at the bottom, and declared Walter E. Foster, William F. Roberts, Robert T. Hayes and William E. Scully the representatives of the city of St. John in the local legislature.

It is the first of a series of monthly evenings at the Y. M. C. A. for which an invitation has been extended the members of the Boys' Club.

GENERAL BOOTH'S REGRETS.
The Canadian Club has received a message from General Booth regretting his inability to visit this city and address the members. His itinerary is all changed out and there is not a spare day at his disposal. He hopes to visit St. John on a subsequent trip to Canada.

Customs Official Spoils The Game

Nips at the Beginning Attempt to Smuggle Liquor from Steamer.

In the early hours of Wednesday morning, when the majority of citizens were sound asleep in their beds, a grim struggle raged on the gangway at the Atlantic Sugar Refinery Company's wharf between a civilian Customs House official and a negro member of the crew of the steamer Carquest which left here on Saturday morning on her return trip to the British West Indies.

Were On Lookout.

It appears that as a result of reports received here instructions were issued to several Customs officials to be on a sharp lookout for liquor and that an attempt would be made to smuggle the "wet" goods ashore. Accordingly, while one uniformed official was on duty on the steamer another officer in civilian dress was stationed on the wharf. About midnight the Customs House men on the shore were approached by a colored person and requested to move along and it was intimated that liquor would be put ashore. The official refused to go away, but shortly afterwards he moved to a more advantageous position where, unnoticed, he could observe any sinister attempts.

Tussle Takes Place.

In about an hour's time his efforts were rewarded when the same colored person was seen on the gangway proceeding towards shore with a bottle of liquor partly concealed at his side. The official thereupon quietly and quickly drew near to where the negro was, but not before the latter had succeeded in breaking the bottle by throwing it against the side of the steamer. A struggle immediately ensued in which the colored man came out "second best" and was placed under arrest. It is understood that, subsequently, organized Customs officials conducted a raid of the steamer and seized about sixty-five bottles of liquor of various assortments.

Coroner's Court Convenes Tonight

Will Investigate Accident Which Caused Death of Frederick Fisher.

Coroner H. A. Porter will hold an inquest in the Court Chambers tonight into the death of Frederick Fisher, the Halifax young man who was killed by being hit by a shunter on the C. N. R. near the time kiln at Lawlor's Lake last Friday evening. The accident occurred shortly after seven o'clock, when the deceased, in company with his brother-in-law, J. W. A. Bower, was walking along the railway on his way from Hampton to St. John, in search of work.

Engine No. 811 was engaged in shunting cars at the lake at the time and the deceased became bewildered in some way and stepped into its path. After the body had been viewed by Coroner H. A. Porter it was brought to the city and placed in an undertaking parlour.

The Coroner's jury will assemble at the Court Chambers in Germain street this evening at 7.30, and after electing a foreman will proceed with the investigation.

The jury will consist of William J. Knox, Isaac Mercer, Albert W. Covey, Frederick Bryden, J. A. Smythe Kierstead, William Armstrong and David J. Stockford.

The tragedy is a particularly sad one in view of the fact that the victim was a young married man, but twenty-five years of age and leaves a wife, and two young children aged two years, and eighteen months respectively.

MARINE FREIGHT HANDLERS MET

Physician Resents Slur On Hospital

Regards Recent Published Statement as Damaging and Insulting to Staff.

For some time past it has been known that matters at the General Public Hospital are not up to the standard and many questions have been asked as to the reasons for certain things. In an account of a meeting of the Board of Commissioners, published in a morning paper, the following paragraphs occur:

"The doctors in their report expressed the opinion that a larger staff of doctors would be required and more laboratory facilities would be necessary if the requirements of the standardization programme were carried out. The Board is desirous of having the hospital standardized but it was said at the meeting that what was required was not more accommodation in the hospital but more intensive study on the part of the staff, and a higher class of work."

Physician's View.

Questioned regarding the above paragraph a prominent St. John physician and one long connected with the hospital said: "The statement that a more intensive study on the part of the staff and a higher class of work is what is required at the hospital is damaging to the hospital and insulting to the staff. It is quite true that the hospital is not standardized but it is necessary that there should be laboratory facilities for which there is no room in the present building. The medical board, at a meeting requested of the commissioners that the increased accommodation be provided, but their request was not complied with and, until such is done, it will be impossible to place the General Hospital upon the professional map."

Character of Work High.

Although we have been handicapped for many years by lack of space and lack of equipment, statistics will show that the character of the work performed is of the highest order and will compare most favorably with that done in other and better equipped institutions. It is quite true that in standardizing the hospital, though a considerable amount of extra work on the staff would result, the character of such work is not at all higher than that already performed. This increased amount of labor the visiting physicians and surgeons have intimated their entire willingness to undertake. It is quite true that in standardizing the hospital, though a considerable amount of extra work on the staff would result, the character of such work is not at all higher than that already performed. This increased amount of labor the visiting physicians and surgeons have intimated their entire willingness to undertake. It is quite true that in standardizing the hospital, though a considerable amount of extra work on the staff would result, the character of such work is not at all higher than that already performed. This increased amount of labor the visiting physicians and surgeons have intimated their entire willingness to undertake.

It is most imperative that at a time when the public are gradually realizing the absolute necessity of not only increased laboratory accommodation, but also of very greatly increased space for beds, that such a statement as recently appeared should be made and that the institution that the professional services of those who devote a large amount of their time so freely to the care of the sick, is not of the highest character, is, in my opinion, highly reprehensible. I do not know if such a statement was given to the public. I trust the matter will not be allowed to rest there, and I believe it will not. Some action must be taken which will remove this slur which the article indicated cast upon the body of men who have many of them for many years gratuitously given of their very best to the public."

Policy Not Good One.

"The management of the hospital appear to have adopted a policy which is rapidly depriving the institution of the services of the most experienced men. Within a very short time three have resigned to other institutions. One has gone to Moncton hospital, one to Aroostook Hospital, Hospital, Maine, one to New York City Hospital, and it is feared that other resignations will follow. Such a policy if continued will very seriously impair the usefulness of the institution."

Time to Act.

"The time, I believe, is rapidly approaching when the citizens of St. John will refuse to allow hospital matters to be treated as they have been in the past. A city of the size and importance of St. John should possess a large, modern, well equipped and well officered hospital. It should not such an institution at the present time, and it would appear that nothing short of a revolution can accomplish it. Would a careful inquiry into the whole situation by a Commission of broad-minded, progressive and public spirited men provide a remedy for the existing situation?"
